A MIRACULOUS ESCAPE left a 23-year-old Washington (Pa.) man uninjured when this unloaded flatbed tractor-trailer plunged through guardrails on outer Dresden Ave. at 4:40 this morning, dived down a steep embankment and came to a halt nosed into the bed of Carpenters Run. William A. Rhodes, the driver, told police he fell asleep as he drove inbound in the 1700 block of Dresden. The rig is owned by Mississippi East, Inc., of Washington, police said. Heavy equipment was at the scene today in an attempt to drag the rig back onto the highway.

Street Slated For Extension By 600 Feet

Council At Chester Agrees To Project For Orion Ave. Use

Following a lengthy discussion on the proposed extension of Orion Ave. in Chester Wednesday night, Chester Council agreed to permit the street opening.

The request to extend the improved right-of-way 600 feet was filed April 5 by Councilman W. F. Bishop on behalf of H. R. Frederick, who plans a real estate development.

Harry Lewis, representing Frederick, said last night plans call for placing a 20-foot wide strip of red dog on the 30-foot wide street.

Councilman Charles Kology said the city should not "take a chance" on opening any more streets because there are not enough funds at present to maintain existing streets.

Councilman Donald Hissam declared he is not in favor of opening the street until there are four or five homes built so there would be enough revenue from the houses to help maintain it.

Bishop said there would not be much expense for maintenance since it will not be blacktopped immediately.

Lewis said he believes the opening of the street would be an asset to the town. He said at present, one potential buyer is interested in obtaining three lots. There are 32 lots along the planned street. Council unanimously approved the opening.

Cost of the opening will be paid by Frederick.

City Solicitor Ruth Cox Turner was instructed to prepare a revised garbage and refuse ordinance to provide penalties for permitting weeds to grow and other offenses not covered in the 1953 measure.

City Clerk Roy Cashdollar is to notify the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. of repair needs at the overhead bridges at 2nd and 3rd Sts. and crossings at 5th and 6th Sts. and to clear weeds along the tracks through town.

At the request of Hissam, Council authorized the water department to install a new fire hydrant at Indiana Ave. and 4th St.

Bishop, chairman of the water and sewer committee, reported four price estimates have been obtained for purchase of a new Jeep for the water department. No action was taken.

Bills totaling $1,649 were paid. A total of $2,000 in tax revenue was received from the sheriff's office. Cashdollar presided in the absence of Mayor Ray Collins, who was ill.

Ohioans Disagree

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio Democratic Sens. Frank J. Lausche and Stephen M. Young disagreed on an amendment to reduce coverage under the minimum wage bill Wednesday. In the roll call which defeated the amendment 56-39, Lausche voted for the amendment, Young against it.

Ohio's Senate OK's Shifting Of Road Fund

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Bills to raise penalties for participation in numbers rackets or organized sports betting come up for a House vote today.

They are among seven measures—all House bills—which representatives are considering as the legislature's 16th work week draws to a close.

Over in the Senate, where smoke is just clearing after Wednesday's hardfought 24-13 decision to give local governments $15 million more for road work, four bills are scheduled for vote.

Included is a House-approved bill providing that, when a conservancy district is dissolved, funds are repaid to the participating counties according to the ratio in which they originally were contributed.

Wednesday's decision by the Senate to join the House in approving the $15 million diversion bill doesn't signal the end of the long battle over the measure.

Sen. Ross Pepple, R-Allen, who hasn't shown too much love for the measure even though it is a Republican platform bill, offered an amendment on the floor to make the effective date Jan. 1, 1962. The amendment was approved, so now the bill goes back to the House in order that representatives—who passed the measure March 3 — can consider the change.

All 19 Republicans present voted for the bill, as did 5 Democrats. If those 24 votes hold firm, there would be one more than enough to override Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's expected veto. Sen. Lowell Fess, R-Greene, chairman of the Highway Committee, was the only

Can't Claim Mercy, Says Former Nazi

JERUSLAEM (AP) — Adolf Eichmann was cool and matter of fact—with one notable exception—during the long sessions when he told his story to his Israeli captors and a tape recorder, an informed source said today.

"He showed a little feeling when he said he expects to get the death sentence," the Israeli informant reported.

"I know I may face a sentence of death," said Eichmann in a recorded statement that was played back Wednesday for the three-judge court trying him on charges of mass murder of Europe's Jews.

"I cannot claim mercy because I am not worthy of it," Eichmann continued. "I should have hanged myself in public so that all the anti-Semites in the world would have had these terrible events emphasized for them."

"He was quite businesslike the rest of the time," the Israeli source reported, "but he seemed moved, a litlte emotional, when he read this."

Seventy-seven cartons of tapes were made of the long hours of interrogation that followed Eichmann's capture in Argentina last year. The prosecution Wednesday began playing back excerpts at the trial, bringing into the record the former SS officer's own version of the Nazis' "final Solution of the Jewish Problem"—meaning total annihilation of Europe's Jewry—and the part he played in it.

Post Office Bids Sought At Wellsville

Sealed Offers To Be Taken May 20 At Cleveland Unit

The Post Office Department today started advertising for bids for construction of a new Post Office building in Wellsville.

Postmaster E. J. Evans said he posted the request for the bids in the lobby of the Post Office this morning.

Evans said he has received preliminary drawings of the proposed building. Any interested bidder may contact Roy E. Ronke, department real estate agent, at 4079 Main Post Office Building, Cleveland 1. Sealed bids will be accepted until May 20 at 3 p. m.

The building is to be constructed at 12th and Main Sts. It was proposed previously that the present building at the site be remodeled, but this plan was abandoned due to the numerous complaints received. The location also brought complaints because it is out of the main business district.

The specifications call for the successful bidder to raze the brick building which housed the former Standard Hardware.

The building and site are owned by a Cleveland man.

The proposed building will be cement block with face brick on all four sides. Total square feet is 11,213.

This includes an inside area of 4,984 square feet, 11,213 square feet for driveways, parking area and maneuvering area; 610 square feet for a rear loading platform and 1,550 square feet of landscaped area on the 12th St. side.

The sidewalks and curb account for 594 square feet. A porch area on the front will be six inches above the driveway and accounts for 203 square feet.

The building will be set back from Main St. as the present building is splashed by passing vehicles.

The porch will be 12 to 14 feet wide and will be set back from the street 29 feet. This area will provide ample drivein parking for patrons.

The windows in the front will be tinted plate glass. The heating will be added later.

Navy Fires Polaris Missile Successfully

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —The successful firing of a Polaris missile from the nuclear submarine Robert E. Lee indicates the Navy has solved problems which plagued some earlier underwater launches of the rocket.

The Lee unleashed the Polaris over a 1,150-mile course Wednesday. The Defense Department, sticking to a new policy, declined to announce test results, but informed sources reported all flight objectives were achieved.

This was the second straight successful submarine launching of the Polaris since the Navy announced it had made a relatively minor change designed to eliminate difficulties which affected the missile when it was launched from undersea.

Both Report Victories

Cuban Invasion Marked By Conflicting Claims

Castro Says Rebel Band Wiped Out

Foes Insist Main Unit In Mountains, Joining Guerrillas

By The Associated Press

Prime Minister Fidel Castro asserted today he has wiped out rebel invaders on Cuba's southern beaches and captured large stores of U.S. arms, including Sherman tanks. But he conceded his forces have suffered heavy losses.

The rebel leaders insisted the main invading force has fought through to guerrillas waiting in the Escambray Mountains of central Cuba to carry on the war against the pro-Communist regime.

Echoing Castro's claims, Moscow radio charged U.S. Marines are poised to strike and repeated Soviet government warnings that the use of American forces would have dire consequences.

Moscow said Castro had "dealt a colossal blow to the forces of aggression" but "this does not mean that the threat to the independence of Cuba has been removed and that the interventionists have relinquished their criminal schemes."

An anti-Castro leader in Puerto Rico reported Wednesday night that a new landing had been made in Cuba. He did not give the location of the beachhead.

There were rumors — entirely unconfirmed—that more landings were immenent.

The Cuban government communique claiming total victory over the invasion force that hit the swampy beaches of Cochinos Bay Monday said "Giron Beach, which was the last stronghold of the mercenaries, fell at 5:30 p.m. yesterday."

Editors Wait Kennedy On Cuban Crisis

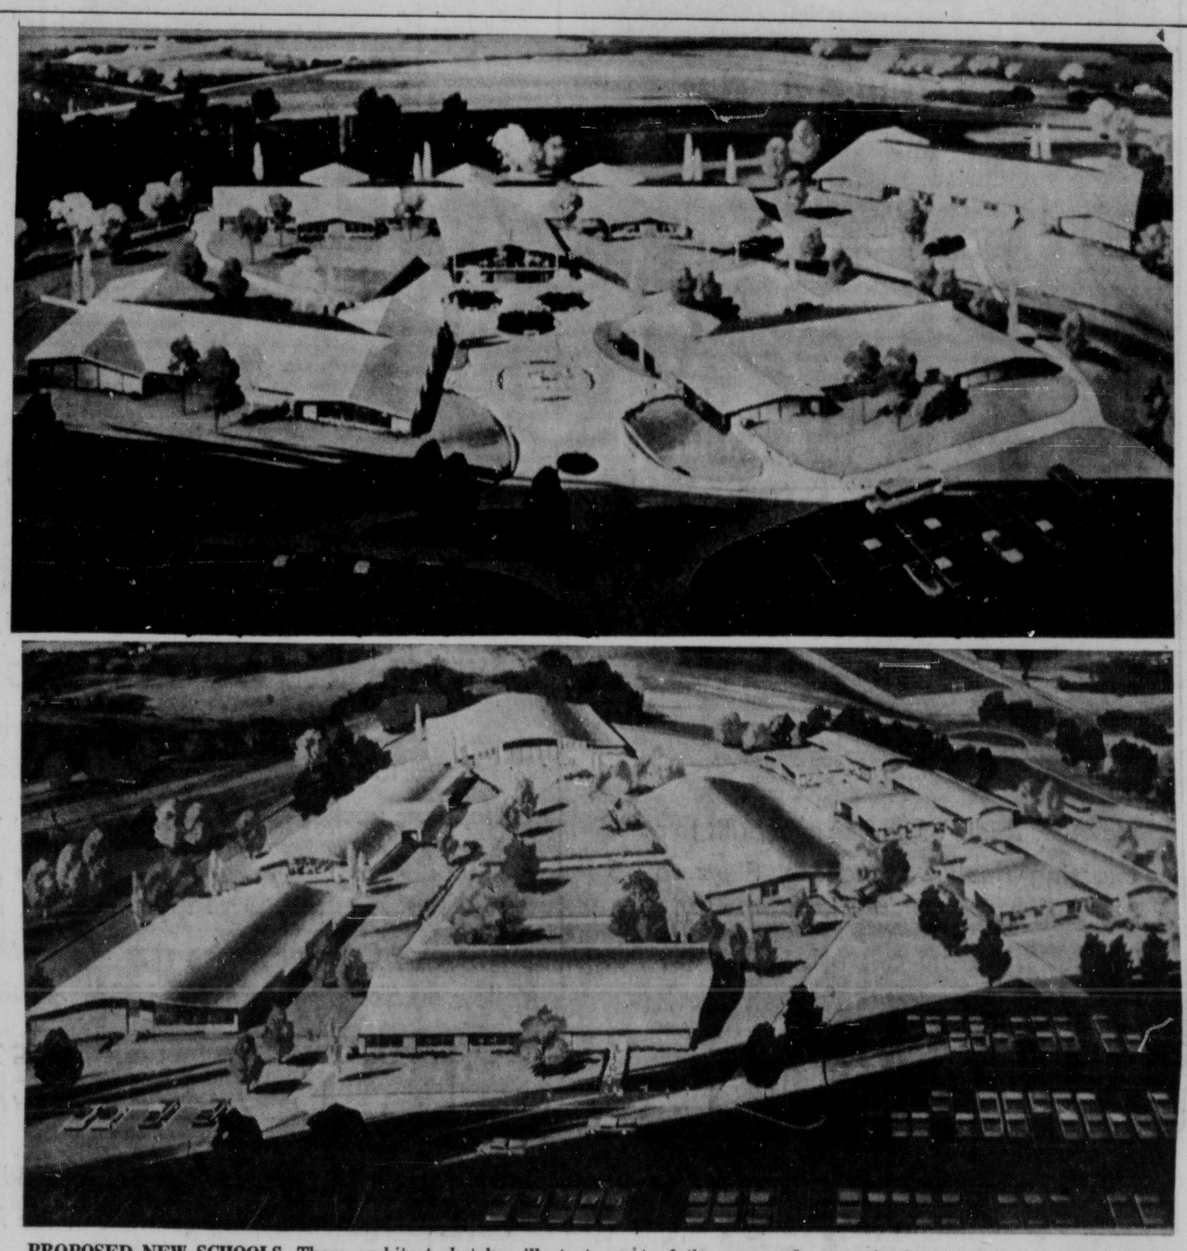
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy plans to discuss the explosive Cuban situation in an address today to to American Society of Newspaper Editors—the group which two years ago heard Fidel Castro insist: "We are not Communists."

At first, the White House said Wednesday that Kennedy would not discuss specifically the invasion of Cuba by anti-Castro forces. It called his luncheon speech "a review of the entire world situation."

Then, after midnight, Pierre Salinger, White House news secretary, called the press associations to say Kennedy "will discuss the Cuban problem" before the society. Salinger gave no further details.

The address was to be broadcast live by network radio and television.

Kennedy was expected to reaffirm his warning to Soviet Premier Khrushchev that any outside military interference in Cuba would bring immediate U.S. counteraction.



Airliner From Cuba Lands In Bermuda

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force headquarters here said today a Cuban airliner landed early this morning at Kindley Field, Bermuda.

The plane was described as belonging to the Cubana Airline owned by the Castro government. It arrived at the Bermuda airdrome at 4:50 a.m. EST.

The Air Force had no further information.

Kindley Field at the eastern end of Bermuda is used jointly by the Air Force and commercial airlines.

PROPOSED NEW SCHOOLS. These architect sketches illustrate part of the proposed new school construction program in Hancock County that will be submitted to the voters in a special election May 16. Residents will ballot on a $5¼ million bond issue for school expansion and modernization. The top sketch shows the new 600-pupil high school center that would be erected in Pughtown to serve the northern section of the county. The new high school and junior high school for Weirton is pictured in the lower photo. Approval of the bond issue also would underwrite cost of construction of a new 300-pupil elementary school for Chester and installation of shower rooms and locker rooms for Newell Wells High School and Chester High at a cost of $9,000 each.

Pair Injured As Man's Car Rams Culvert

A Gardendale couple was injured Wednesday night when their auto struck a culvert after the husband ditched his car deliberately to avoid a head-on collision with an approaching vehicle, police reported.

Mrs. Anna Cox, 54, of 521 Meakin St., is in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with possible back injuries and a laceration over the right eye. Sherlie Cox, 57, her husband, was released after treatment for lacerations of the upper lip and bruises of the chest.

Cox told police he was driving south on Gardendale Ave. about 7:50 p. m. when a vehicle headed north pulled into his traffic lane. Cox said he pulled into the opposite lane to avoid a head-on collision. The left front wheel of his 1960 model compact sedan dropped into a ditch, then struck the end of the culvert, he said.

In another mishap Wednesday at 12:25 p. m. at W. 5th and Jackson Sts., two cars were damaged when a woman motorist stopped abruptly and grabbed at her 3-year-old daughter, who was falling out of the auto after the door flew open as she rounded the turn, police said.

The collision damaged a 1955 two-door sedan driven by Mrs. Audrey K. Ward, 26, of the Bell School Rd. and a 1957 two-door sedan driven by Mildred H. Hopper, 49, of 419 Gardendale Ave., officers said.

Mrs. Ward told police her daughter, Kathy, started to fall out the door as she turned off W. 5th St. onto Jackson St. She slammed on the brakes and grabbed for the child and her auto was hit from the rear by the Hopper car, she said.

Another collision Wednesday at 1:44 p. m. at W. 3rd and Market Sts. damaged a 1957 four-door sedan driven by Mary E. Hobbs, 18, of Chester R. D. 1 and a parked 1960 auto owned by Anna

Tax Cut Should Wait Year

Kennedy's Tax Proposals Would Aid Business, Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today sent Congress a tax plan which he said would help modernize American business and create 500,000 jobs. He said a possible general tax cut should wait until next year.

The President said his proposals would attack "expense account living," discourage tax cheating and reduce the worrisome flow of U.S. dollars abroad without cutting into federal revenues.

In a 6,300-word special message, Kennedy described his program as "a first though urgent step" toward broad tax reform in 1962 — reform which he said could combine elimination of loopholes and discriminatory provisions with a lowering of basic tax rates.

These were among the most notable items in the first-step package:

A special tax incentive for business to modernize and expand, withholding of taxes on dividends and interest, repeal of the special tax treatment given dividends, and discouragement of corporate investment in competing industrial countries.

Kennedy also proposed stricter curbs on tax-deductible expense accounts, the elimination of foreign "tax havens" and the collection of taxes from high-income Americans—notably movie stars—who move abroad in the hope of escaping the U.S. income tax.

He said the business investment incentive would cut revenues by $1.7 billion a year. However, he said the other items would offset this and leave at least $50 million to spare.

Many of the specifics were sure to stir controversy aplenty. However, there could be little argument over Kennedy's main objectives: to stimulate the economy, make U.S. business more competitive with fast-stepping foreign competition, and reduce the nation's balance of payments deficit.

The key item, and perhaps the most controversial, was the proposed tax incentive for business expansion and modernization. In essence, Kennedy would permit companies to subtract from their tax bills an amount equal to part of their annual investment in new or improved facilities.

Many businessmen already have indicated opposition to this "tax credit" idea. Some have said they would rather be allowed to increase their depreciation allowances; that is, the amount they can set aside, free from tax, to offset the inevitable aging of new or improved facilities which must eventually be replaced.

Weekend Exercises Called Off By Navy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy has canceled a scheduled weekend exercise off the Florida coast after the White House announced President Kennedy would not attend.

Kennedy had planned to watch the Navy flight and anti-submarine exercise from the carrier Independence Saturday afternoon and night. This was to have taken place in the Atlantic several hundred miles from Cuba where anti-Castro rebels have launched an invasion.

The White House news secretary, Pierre Salinger, Wednesday attributed Kennedy's cancelation only to "the press of business over the weekend." He turned aside questions as to whether the fighting in Cuba had anything to do with the decision.

Asks United Support

Gary Cooper 'Gravely Ill' With Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Sources close to Gary Cooper say the veteran film star is gravely ill with cancer—and knows it.

The word followed an announcement by a family spokesman Wednesday that the lanky, laconic actor is critically ill.

Cooper, who will be 60 on May 7, is confined to his Bel-Air home.

The onetime Montana cowboy has starred in 70 pictures, winning Oscars as the World War I hero in 1941's "Sergeant York" and as the duty-bound sheriff in 1952's "High Noon."

Speculation about his physical condition had heightened since the annual academy awards ceremonies Monday night. Fellow star James Stewart accepted a special honorary award for Cooper and, addressing him directly into the television camera, nearly broke into tears as he spoke words of tribute.

Publicist Warren Cowan announced Wednesday: "Because the Cooper family has been inundated by inquiries about his health since the James Stewart presentation, I am asked by the family to say that he is gravely ill."

Cowan did not disclose the nature of the ailment. This word came afterward, privately, from several sources.

Sentence Due May 10 In Kidnaping Case

WHEELING (AP) — Bruce Van Lear will be sentenced May 10 for kidnaping two Wheeling teen-agers and forcing them to drive him to several nearby Ohio communities in a car owned by the father of one of the victims.

Van Lear, 20, of Wheeling, pleaded guilty in U. S. District Court Wednesday to kidnaping and interstate transportation of a stolen car. The victims of the March 4 escapade — William R. Fowler, 18, and Linda Kay Gast, 17 — were not hurt.

Tax Cut Should Wait Year

Kennedy's Tax Proposals Would Aid Business, Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy today sent Congress a tax plan which he said would help modernize American business and create 500,000 jobs. He said a possible general tax cut should wait until next year.

The President said his proposals would attack "expense account living," discourage tax cheating and reduce the worrisome flow of U.S. dollars abroad without cutting into federal revenues.

In a 6,300-word special message, Kennedy described his program as "a first though urgent step" toward broad tax reform in 1962 — reform which he said could combine elimination of loopholes and discriminatory provisions with a lowering of basic tax rates.

These were among the most notable items in the first-step package:

A special tax incentive for business to modernize and expand, withholding of taxes on dividends and interest, repeal of the special tax treatment given dividends, and discouragement of corporate investment in competing industrial countries.

Kennedy also proposed stricter curbs on tax-deductible expense accounts, the elimination of foreign "tax havens" and the collection of taxes from high-income Americans—notably movie stars—who move abroad in the hope of escaping the U.S. income tax.

He said the business investment incentive would cut revenues by $1.7 billion a year. However, he said the other items would offset this and leave at least $50 million to spare.

Many of the specifics were sure to stir controversy aplenty. However, there could be little argument over Kennedy's main objectives: to stimulate the economy, make U.S. business more competitive with fast-stepping foreign competition, and reduce the nation's balance of payments deficit.

The key item, and perhaps the most controversial, was the proposed tax incentive for business expansion and modernization. In essence, Kennedy would permit companies to subtract from their tax bills an amount equal to part of their annual investment in new or improved facilities.

Many businessmen already have indicated opposition to this "tax credit" idea. Some have said they would rather be allowed to increase their depreciation allowances; that is, the amount they can set aside, free from tax, to offset the inevitable aging of new or improved facilities which must eventually be replaced.

Weekend Exercises Called Off By Navy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy has canceled a scheduled weekend exercise off the Florida coast after the White House announced President Kennedy would not attend.

Kennedy had planned to watch the Navy flight and anti-submarine exercise from the carrier Independence Saturday afternoon and night. This was to have taken place in the Atlantic several hundred miles from Cuba where anti-Castro rebels have launched an invasion.

The White House news secretary, Pierre Salinger, Wednesday attributed Kennedy's cancelation only to "the press of business over the weekend." He turned aside questions as to whether the fighting in Cuba had anything to do with the decision.

Asks United Support

Gary Cooper 'Gravely Ill' With Cancer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Sources close to Gary Cooper say the veteran film star is gravely ill with cancer—and knows it.

The word followed an announcement by a family spokesman Wednesday that the lanky, laconic actor is critically ill.

Cooper, who will be 60 on May 7, is confined to his Bel-Air home.

The onetime Montana cowboy has starred in 70 pictures, winning Oscars as the World War I hero in 1941's "Sergeant York" and as the duty-bound sheriff in 1952's "High Noon."

Speculation about his physical condition had heightened since the annual academy awards ceremonies Monday night. Fellow star James Stewart accepted a special honorary award for Cooper and, addressing him directly into the television camera, nearly broke into tears as he spoke words of tribute.

Publicist Warren Cowan announced Wednesday: "Because the Cooper family has been inundated by inquiries about his health since the James Stewart presentation, I am asked by the family to say that he is gravely ill."

Cowan did not disclose the nature of the ailment. This word came afterward, privately, from several sources.

Sentence Due May 10 In Kidnaping Case

WHEELING (AP) — Bruce Van Lear will be sentenced May 10 for kidnaping two Wheeling teen-agers and forcing them to drive him to several nearby Ohio communities in a car owned by the father of one of the victims.

Van Lear, 20, of Wheeling, pleaded guilty in U. S. District Court Wednesday to kidnaping and interstate transportation of a stolen car. The victims of the March 4 escapade — William R. Fowler, 18, and Linda Kay Gast, 17 — were not hurt.

Progress Report

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Economist Gabriel Hauge gives this definition of progress: "If you have different problems on your desk today then you had yesterday, you're making progress."

Ohio

Republican who did not show up.

The bill gives $15 million presently withheld from license fee income to counties, cities, villages and townships. These local governments get the rest of the license tag income, but the $15 million was withheld to operate the Ohio Department of Highway Safety.

The Ohio Highway Department fought the measure tooth and nail because, if it becomes law, the safety department will be financed from $15 million in gasoline tax income now used by the Highway Department. The Highway Department has had exclusive use of this money—from the last two cents of the gas tax—since the tax was imposed two years ago.

Counties stand to gain about $10.5 million, cities and villages $3.7 million and townships $750,000 more if the bill survives the expected veto. A compromise attempt, which would have given local governments additional fund from other sources, and a bill to provide the money by hiking automobile license fees $2.50, died in committee.

The original House vote on the measure was 109-25 and, with an 82-55 GOP majority, overriding a veto (84 votes needed) is not expected to be a problem on that side in this case.

Two more bills were introduced in the Senate, which also approved bills to ease some requirements on foreign building and loan associations doing business in Ohio and to return some proceeds of parimutuel taxes to benefit commercial horse racing tracks and encourage thoroughbred breeding.

Legislators were visited during the day Wednesday by Miss Alice Ann McClain of Marion, Miss Ohio of 1961, who was attending a telphone company convention.

In a 96-37 decision, the House revised the small loan act, raising the amount small loan firms can lend from $1,000 to $2,000. The measure goes to the Senate as does a bill to ban discrimination in public places like restaurants, which was approved 125-2. The latter measure would prohibit discrimination because of color, race, creed or national origin, and would be enforced by the Civil Rights Commission created in 1959. In effect, it puts teeth in an ineffective antidiscrimination law long on the books.

The House also completed passage of a Senate-approved bill that repeals a complicated section of law passed in 1949. Backers said the section is outdated in view of present federal standards for the urban renewal program, and that bonding officials declined to help noncharter cities finance such projects until the matter was cleared up.

It originated with Canton, where efforts to proceed with urban renewal were said to be blocked by the statutes. Campbell and Athens also were said to be immediate beneficiaries of the act, which—under an emergency clause—becomes effective as soon as the governor signs it.

The day's heaviest opposition in the House was reserved for a bill permitting a registered apprentice barber three opportunities to pass an examination. At present, anyone failing the exam must complete a minimum of 500 additional hours of study within three months before taking it again.

The bill finally passed, 78-50, with nine votes to spare. Rep. G. D. Tablack, D-Mahoning, sponsor, blamed opposition on what he called some "greedy barber colleges who want to gouge students."

Representatives also voted to authorize general health district boards to require vaccination of dogs. Like the other House bills considered, it goes to the Senate for further consideration.

Mothers At Midland To Give Jackets To 6

The Midland Mothers Athletic Association will present six jackets to senior basketball players Friday at 9:45 a. m. during an assembly at Lincoln High School.

Mrs. Frank Aloi said that baseball and track team seniors will receive their jackets at the association's all-sports banquet May 15. Football seniors received theirs last fall.

Next meeting is May 4.

Cancer Fund Staff Named

NEW CUMBERLAND — Volunteer workers for the Cancer Crusade in the New Cumberland area were named today by Mrs. Thomas Mitchell and Mrs. John Arbogast Jr., co-chairmen.

Participating in the house canvass this month will be volunteers from the Young Women's Club, which annually conducts the local drive in co-operation with the Brooke-Hancock Chapter of the West Virginia Cancer Society.

In addition to fund solicitation, the workers will distribute literature on the research, education and service programs of the national organization, Mrs. Mitchell said.

The pamphlets contain a list of the disease's seven danger signals, an explanation of how each contribution is spent and a receipt for income tax purposes.

The campaign will continue the remainder of this month, Mrs. Mitchell said.

Drama Group To Give Cumberland Program

NEW CUMBERLAND — The drama section of the Weirton Women's Club will present the program at the meeting of the New Cumberland Young Women's Club tonight at 8 at the Swaney Memorial Library.

The program is sponsored by the fine arts committee of the New Cumberland club headed by Mrs. Richard Cameron, chairman.

Officers will be elected following the drama program. Mrs. John Jones, president, will preside and report on the West Virginia Federation convention held at White Sulphur Springs.

Smoke Bomb Fails To Hold Up Robbers

LATHAM, Ill. — Robbers were stopped in their effort to open a grain elevator office when a smoke bomb exploded.

But they weren't stopped for long.

They broke into a nearby fire station, stole some gas masks and finished the job of opening the safe. The take: $150.

Cuba

ister and commander in chief, the communique claimed the invaders "suffered heavy casualties, dispersing in a swamp area from which no escape is possible." But Castro conceded his forces paid a "high toll in courageous lives."

The prime minister said a "large quantity of arms of American manufacture were captured, including various Sherman heavy tanks."

The Cuban Revolutionary Council, which organized the striking force of Cuban exiles, had said earlier that the "landings" were only a phase of its campaign to overthrow Castro. It disclaimed them as "an invasion."

"We did not expect to topple Castro immediately or without setbacks," the council said in a communique issued Wednesday night in New York.

The rebel command now appeared to be anticipating a mounting guerrilla campaign which they hoped would steadily attract popular support within Cuba, much in the manner of Castro's guerrilla campaign from the mountains of Oriente Province that ultimately brought the downfall of Fulgencio Batista.

Republican who did not show up.

The bill gives $15 million presently withheld from license fee income to counties, cities, villages and townships. These local governments get the rest of the license tag income, but the $15 million was withheld to operate the Ohio Department of Highway Safety.

The Ohio Highway Department fought the measure tooth and nail because, if it becomes law, the safety department will be financed from $15 million in gasoline tax income now used by the Highway Department. The Highway Department has had exclusive use of this money—from the last two cents of the gas tax—since the tax was imposed two years ago.

Counties stand to gain about $10.5 million, cities and villages $3.7 million and townships $750,000 more if the bill survives the expected veto. A compromise attempt, which would have given local governments additional fund from other sources, and a bill to provide the money by hiking automobile license fees $2.50, died in committee.

The original House vote on the measure was 109-25 and, with an 82-55 GOP majority, overriding a veto (84 votes needed) is not expected to be a problem on that side in this case.

Two more bills were introduced in the Senate, which also approved bills to ease some requirements on foreign building and loan associations doing business in Ohio and to return some proceeds of parimutuel taxes to benefit commercial horse racing tracks and encourage thoroughbred breeding.

Legislators were visited during the day Wednesday by Miss Alice Ann McClain of Marion, Miss Ohio of 1961, who was attending a telephone company convention.

In a 96-37 decision, the House revised the small loan act, raising the amount small loan firms can lend from $1,000 to $2,000. The measure goes to the Senate as does a bill to ban discrimination in public places like restaurants, which was approved 125-2. The latter measure would prohibit discrimination because of color, race, creed or national origin, and would be enforced by the Civil Rights Commission created in 1959. In effect, it puts teeth in an ineffective antidiscrimination law long on the books.

The House also completed passage of a Senate-approved bill that repeals a complicated section of law passed in 1949. Backers said the section is outdated in view of present federal standards for the urban renewal program, and that bonding officials declined to help noncharter cities finance such projects until the matter was cleared up.

It originated with Canton, where efforts to proceed with urban renewal were said to be blocked by the statutes. Campbell and Athens also were said to be immediate beneficiaries of the act, which—under an emergency clause—becomes effective as soon as the governor signs it.

The day's heaviest opposition in the House was reserved for a bill permitting a registered apprentice barber three opportunities to pass an examination. At present, anyone failing the exam must complete a minimum of 500 additional hours of study within three months before taking it again.

The bill finally passed, 78-50, with nine votes to spare. Rep. G. D. Tablack, D-Mahoning, sponsor, blamed opposition on what he called some "greedy barber colleges who want to gouge students."

Representatives also voted to authorize general health district boards to require vaccination of dogs. Like the other House bills considered, it goes to the Senate for further consideration.

Cancer Fund Staff Named

NEW CUMBERLAND — Volunteer workers for the Cancer Crusade in the New Cumberland area were named today by Mrs. Thomas Mitchell and Mrs. John Arbogast Jr., co-chairmen.

Participating in the house canvass this month will be volunteers from the Young Women's Club, which annually conducts the local drive in co-operation with the Brooke-Hancock Chapter of the West Virginia Cancer Society.

In addition to fund solicitation, the workers will distribute literature on the research, education and service programs of the national organization, Mrs. Mitchell said.

The pamphlets contain a list of the disease's seven danger signals, an explanation of how each contribution is spent and a receipt for income tax purposes.

The campaign will continue the remainder of this month, Mrs. Mitchell said.

Drama Group To Give Cumberland Program

NEW CUMBERLAND — The drama section of the Weirton Women's Club will present the program at the meeting of the New Cumberland Young Women's Club tonight at 8 at the Swaney Memorial Library.

The program is sponsored by the fine arts committee of the New Cumberland club headed by Mrs. Richard Cameron, chairman.

Officers will be elected following the drama program. Mrs. John Jones, president, will preside and report on the West Virginia Federation convention held at White Sulphur Springs.

ister and commander in chief, the communique claimed the invaders "suffered heavy casualties, dispersing in a swamp area from which no escape is possible." But Castro conceded his forces paid a "high toll in courageous lives."

The prime minister said a "large quantity of arms of American manufacture were captured, including various Sherman heavy tanks."

The Cuban Revolutionary Council, which organized the striking force of Cuban exiles, had said earlier that the "landings" were only a phase of its campaign to overthrow Castro. It disclaimed them as "an invasion."

"We did not expect to topple Castro immediately or without setbacks," the council said in a communique issued Wednesday night in New York.

The rebel command now appeared to be anticipating a mounting guerrilla campaign which they hoped would steadily attract popular support within Cuba, much in the manner of Castro's guerrilla campaign from the mountains of Oriente Province that ultimately brought the downfall of Fulgencio Batista.

Decision On Student Aid

The Ohio General Assembly faces another decision this year on state aid to Ohio students who lack the money but are otherwise qualified to obtain college educations.

There are no less than three proposals now pending before committees. They would:

Abolish the Ohio Scholarship Funds set up by the 1959 assembly.

Change the scholarship setup to allow the state to finance directly outright grants to deserving students, instead of matching privately contributed funds and using only investment income for awards.

Establish an FHA-type guaranty program to insure private loans to students.

IT IS UNLIKELY, fortunately, that the first will get far in the legislative process.

The second represents a compromise between the state and the Ohio Colleges Association, which justifiably frowned on the prospect of the state's competing with privately endowed colleges for business contributions they have been receiving for a long time.

The sponsors of the third proposal have suggested that the loan-guaranty program be kicked off with $300,000 appropriated two years ago for the scholarship fund but so far unused.

Supporters of this idea argue that such a sum could insure up to $4.5 million in loans, which under the terms of the bill could assist 4,500 or more students during the first year of the plan's operation.

The scholarship fund law would remain on the books, and the trustees of that program would govern the loan program.

In view of the difficulty the scholarship program has had in getting started and the number of students who could seek quick assistance under the loan program, this idea appears to be worthy of immediate action.

IT MAY BE that in the development of a broader higher education program, Ohio will want eventually to use both approaches to student assistance. It would be unwise, in that case, to have completely scuttled the scholarship authorization now on the books.

But in the meantime, a lot more students could be helped more quickly by using what funds are currently available to start the loan program.

Total state financing of the scholarship funds would require considerably more money to reach as many students. These demands for money must be weighed against needs of the public school subsidy program and the state universities.

Another advantage of the loan approach is that it puts a greater share of the burden for qualification and performance on the student himself. In a system of outright grants, the burden is heavier on the state to sort out those who are deserving, capable and willing to exert their best efforts.

A similar loan program to the proposed in Ohio has been highly successful in Massachusetts, which is the reason the sponsors offered it for consideration. It should be given a try in Ohio.

Communism Is Always A Conspiracy

What if Russian-made tanks, planes, guns and political ideas never had been sent to Cuba and Fidel Castro had embraced Communist ideology of his own free will?

Would the United States have been as alarmed about that as it is about the abundant evidence that the Communist Conspiracy has been busy in Cuba?

The United States would be more concerned than alarmed if Cuba had taken up Communist doctrines without intercession by Russian, Chinese and Czech Communists. What has alarmed it is intercession by foreign powers, not the Communist ideology being preached by Castro.

Except for Yugoslavia under Marshal Tito, there is no country in which the Communist ideology is separated from the Moscow-dominated Communist Conspiracy. And even in Yugoslavia there continue to be strong ties with Communist China and with the doctrinaire Communists of Moscow. It is only in national politics that the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia fail to agree.

Thus, the question whether Cuba could be Communist without the influence of the Communist Conspiracy is conjectural.

There never has been an example of any country's being Communist without a conspiratorial effort. Communism is not a native movement. It is a ideology that does not spring naturally from the aspirations of people.

Even in nations living under Communist rules the members of the Communist party are a small minority, as they are in the Soviet Union.

There never has been an example of a Communist government sustaining itself without harsh police methods.

No people ever have voted to be ruled by Communist totalitarians.

There would have been no Communist preachments or practices in Cuba without the Communist Conspiracy. And if it withdraws its support of Fidel Castro and his government, Cubans will be as anti-Communist — or perhaps as un-Communist—as if they never had heard of Castro and his Red companions.

Safe Dreamboat

Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Ribicoff drew snickers from a group of teen-agers the other day when he urged the girls to promote highway safety by refusing to date boys who drive like crazy.

But Mr. Ribicoff, who made quite a record for safety when he was governor of Connecticut, didn't mean to be funny. He was simply dealing with the facts of life. He proposes that the girls let the boys know they prize their lives more than an evening's entertainment.

The effect, the secretary says, would be to make the careful drivers the most popular boys and therefore the most likely to get dates.

It might be worth a try. Certainly a lot of parents of both boys and girls would be happy to promote the idea.

The old maxim that "a girl can't be too careful" could prove to be a powerful slogan for highway safety. It would no longer be enough for a boy to have a car to be a dreamboat; he would have to prove he was interested enough in his girl friend to keep her alive for another date.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

What the Free World needs most is good advertising. What we are doing for chewing gum, toothpaste, beer, entertainment and soda the enemy is doing for moon journeys and a sort of Kremlin "Get-Their-First Tonic."

Picking a sensational product capable of stirring the world, it puts everything else in the "Can Wait" file, concentrates on the one goal, steals a head start on copetitors, keeps its nose to the launching pad and sells itself with the ease of the man on the flying trapeze.

It is now clear the Soviets decided on this sensational product, and began to develop and market it away back when Uncle Sam was concentrating on more powerful booster devices for all the comforts of home and a pill for every dizzy spell.

Russia was hard at work with its eyes on the moon while the U.S.A., supposedly the king of advertising and smash salesmanship, was holding the lead in hi-fi records, luxury chariots, pari mutuel machinery, deep freeze fried clams, vacation resort motels and all-purpose slot machines.

Communism has nothing to sell but trouble, disorder, nonstop world friction, domination of small countries, prepackaged vilifications, three-way Nyet capsules and Old Dr. Lenin's Veto Pills.

Uncle Sam has almost everything that makes for human happiness and peaceful living. But he doesn't get his story across with anything like the American ability to sell a ski resort, a cake mix, a salad oil, a glass of schnapps, a hair tonic, or "twenty flavors of wonderful ice cream."

He has been fiddling while the enemy burned a pathway to the planets; doing a Jack Benny act while Khrushchev & Co. put everything into an outer-space show-of-shows. Let's face it: It's later than our advertising forces think.

TAHITI IS TO GET JET PLANE tourists at the rate of a thousand a week and now has berths for liners and big yachts. After all these years of paradise, will it take all the trials of civilization lying down?

Big accomplishment of Russian scientists was not so much that it put a man in space but put a smiling Russian in space.

President Kennedy wants to counter Russian man-in-space feat by converting salt water into fresh,—as something more important to the future. Nothing is less realized by the man in the street than that there is a fresh water shortage. He finds it hard to believe that the day is coming when "How are things in outer space?" will be secondary to, "How are things in the water bucket?"

A big corporation held its annual meeting of stockholders in Carnegie Hall the session being preceded by a Philharmonic Orchestra rehearsal, led by Leonard Bernstein. Well, it would always be a little comforting to get arty atmosphere with news of a bad year's business. Maybe even a dividend cut would be easier to take in this famous concert hall where some of the great artists of the world had done their stuff.

Felix Wankel, German inventor, has developed an auto motor which operates on half the parts of standard car engines. The explosions act directly on crankshaft. "Look, Mom, no valves, no pistons, no carbon!"

The President is making a drive against red tape. Shucks! Doesn't he know it's a national hobby. Not even efficiency men will give it up.

Toothpaste company sponsored one of President Kennedy's recent TV appearances. Maybe to make it clear that the new frontiersmen won't be the old-fashioned type with two front teeth gone and not even missed.

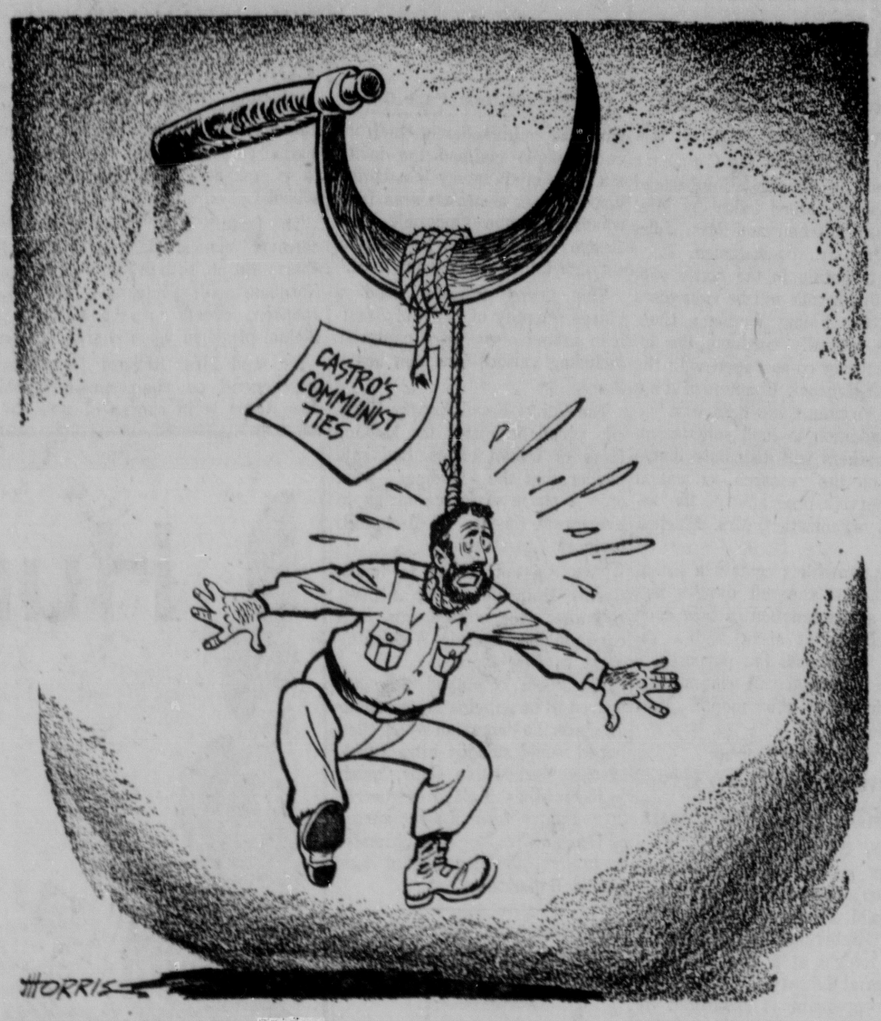
Carl Sandburg and Howard Smith at Gettysburg with TV is so far the standout of events in the Civil War Centennial, but presentation late at night, instead of at an hour when kids and millions more adults would have tuned in, is hard to dig. Within one hour Sandburg projected a more gripping picture of Gettysburg, its generals and Abraham Lincoln than scores of books, plays and movies over the years.

SONG OF A COSMONAUT

I rode a rocket through the sky,
It was as smooth as apple pie;
Around the earth (I am not raving)
While lathering my face and shaving.

John F. Kennedy, at the age of 43, became the youngest man ever to be elected to the presidency of the United States. But Theodore Roosevelt was the youngest man ever to become President. He was only 42 when he assumed the presidency upon the assassination of President McKinley in 1901.

Give A Man Enough Rope



Alex Rose Goes Into Action

By Victor Riesel

Inside John F. Kennedy's private White House office at 3:10 p.m. on Thursday, April 13, the conversation between the President and his two visitors turned toward pillboxes — not medical, not military but millinery. With Mr. Kennedy was an old friend, the glad hatter, Alex Rose, who wears two caps, one as president of the headgear union, the other as leader of New York's pivotal Liberal party. At the President's invitation he had come for a personal conference along with Arthur Goldberg.

Victor Riesel

Two "firsts" were set by that 45-minute personal visit. Mr. Rose was the first labor leader to be invited into the White House inner sanctum since the inauguration.

Also, as they walked in they found the President more relaxed than ever anyone had seen him in that office. So relaxed, in fact, that he reached for a long cigar and lit up.

Whatever it was that the President of the U.S. wanted to discuss with the president of the United Hatters, Cap and Millinery Workers must have been important.

It was a busy moment. Yuri Gagarin had just come in from outer space. Chancellor Adenauer had just come in from West Germany and was due back in the White House later that day. And there was Cuba.

THE PRESIDENT was as confident as he was ebullient. Soon after Mr. Rose entered the room which he had visited so frequently during the FDR and Truman days—President Kennedy smiled, puffed on the unprecedented cigar (positively not a Havana) and said:

"Your man, A. A. Berle, is doing an excellent job here."

Mr. Berle, honorary chairman of the Liberal party, is chairman of President Kennedy's Task Force on Latin America. The talk then lead to Konrad Adenauer and the booming German economy. About then Rose said:

"Mr. President, I want to thank your wife on behalf of the millinery workers. We are very grateful to her for helping to improve the economy in our industry."

John Kennedy grinned at this reference to Jackie's penchant for pillboxes. He was delighted and added, "But what about me?" Mr. Rose, labor's own Noel Coward, replied:

"You, Mr. President, are frequently seen with hat in hand. And our people say that a hat on the head is worth two in the hand."

MR. KENNEDY roared and swiftly let it out that he has just gotten a new hat and would wear it because he was growing to like it.

The conversation swung to the economy, to unemployment and the President's legislative program. There in the privacy of a presidential conversation, Mr. Goldberg warned that there would be "severe unemployment for a long time."

Alex Rose, certainly one of labor's national policy makers, told the government leaders that he believed it would pay to spend heavily.

"Mr. President, you and the labor secretary," said Rose, "have done such an excellent job in arousing the people to the tragedy of unemployment in our midst that you already have created the very circumstances under which the public now expects formidable action and solutions."

Both Rose and Goldberg are known to be advocates of heavy spending in the billions on government projects—similar to that of the old New Deal days.

AT THIS POINT the President indicated he would have difficulties with Congress. Suddenly the relaxation dropped like the ashes from his cigar. The three men discussed minimum wage and other New Frontier legislation.

The President listened grimly to the two men whose sense of political strategy he respects immensely. Then JFK picked up the phone. He put through a very important call to the "Hill."

But there were other problems for the New Frontier. Labor in New York State, for example, was restless. It had begun to discuss organizing a new political party.

JFK feels, as did FDR, that as the big state goes in virtually each election, so goes the nation. This was discussed.

By 4 o'clock the talk ended, the leisurely moments were gone and the dust was flying on the trail of the New Frontier.

The Biggest Mystery

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Still the biggest mystery in the four-day old invasion of Cuba is this: Just what role, if any, did the United States play in the invasion?

President Kennedy has said this country would not intervene militarily in Cuba. But exactly six months ago today he promised help, if elected president, to Cubans who gave hope of overthrowing Fidel Castro.

And today, exactly three months after he became President, the invasion is under way.

Cuban Foreign Minister Dr. Raul Roa said Monday in the United Nations the invaders were a "force of mercenaries organized, financed and armed by the government of the United States."

On Tuesday Premier Khrushchev in a message to Kennedy said, "It is no secret to anyone that the armed bands which invaded that country (Cuba) had been trained, equipped and armed in the United States."

At his news conference a week ago — before the invasion — Kennedy was asked how far this country would be willing to go in helping an anti-Castro uprising or invasion of Cuba.

He never directly answered the question. Instead, he said "there will not be under any conditions an intervention in Cuba by the United States armed forces."

The question asked was how far this country would go in helping an anti-Castro uprising or invasion. The United States could do a lot to help an invasion without using its own armed forces.

In answering Khrushchev, Kennedy again did not say this country had not helped the invaders. What he did say was this: "I have previously stated and I repeat now that the United States intends no military intervention in Cuba."

On Oct. 20 he issued a statement—not a speech—on how he'd deal with Castro if he won the presidency. In part he blamed the Eisenhower administration for not doing far more to curb Castro.

He said Eisenhower had "done almost nothing to keep Castro from consolidating his regime and beginning subversive activities throughout Latin America."

Then he spoke of what he'd do if he became president.

He said this country would have to work with both its European allies and the Latin-American countries linked with the United States in a mutual defense treaty "to promote collective action against communism in the Caribbean."

(No European ally, so far as is publicly known, has had a hand in this invasion. And no Latin-American country has been definitely identified as the shoving-off point for the invasion.)

Then Kennedy, with the election still more than half a month away, promised this: "We must consider stringent economic sanctions—such as the seizing of all Cuban assets in this country to be used to pay off some of the vast sums which Cuba still owes us.

"We must attempt to strengthen the non-Batista democratic anti-Castro forces in exile and in Cuba itself who offer eventual hope of overthrowing Castro.

"Thus far these fighters for freedom have had virtually no support from our government."

Intervention Explained

By David Lawrence

Troops Could Be Used To Protect Property

In fairness to President Kennedy, it must be noted that he never said—as so many news stories have inferred—that under no circumstances would the armed forces of the United States be sent into Cuba.

David Lawrence

What the President did say at his news conference on April 12 was that the forces of the United States would not be employed in any armed "intervention."

The key word is "intervention." This, in diplomacy, means a direct interference or interjection of military strength in a dispute between factions inside a country where there is no constituted government.

What Mr. Kennedy said, on the other hand, does not rule out at all a possible landing of United States forces at any time in Cuba or in any other country in the world whenever the lives and properties of American citizens may require protection.

The Kennedy statement does not, foreclose the possibility that, if a new government arises in Cuba and formally requests military aid from the United States to help protect American lives, this form of help, recognized also in international law, would be forthcoming.

It is important for the record and to avoid misunderstandings in Latin America, in the event of later crises in Cuba, to point out exactly what the President said at his news conference. It is essential that the question to which he was replying also be noted. The exchange was as follows:

"Q. Mr. President, has a decision been reached on how far this country would be willing to go in helping an anti-Castro uprising or invasion in Cuba? What could you say with respect to recent developments as far as the anti-Castro movements in Cuba are concerned?

"A. Well, first I want to say that there will not be under any conditions an intervention in Cuba by United States armed forces. This government will do everything it possibly can, and I think it can meet its responsibilities, to make sure that there are no Americans involved in any actions inside Cuba."

THE CONTEXT of the answer is related solely to "intervention" the giving of help to one side as against another in an internal revolution.

Mr. Kennedy was speaking strictly in conformity with international law and historical precedent. Though the United States has extended recognition—sometimes too soon — it has never conceded that it used its military forces as a matter of "intervention" in the internal affairs of a sovereign state.

Even in 1903 when a faction inside Colombia seceded and established an independent government and called it the Republic of Panama—including the area of the canal—President Theodore Roosevelt within a few days recognized the new government as independent and gave it armed help.

There was official insistence afterward that the United States had not "intervened." Colombia never forgot the episode and in 1914 a treaty was signed which was ratified by Congress in 1921. It contained an "expression of regret" over the episode and provided for the payment to Colombia of a $25 million indemnity by the United States as a means of calming the bitterness of feeling against this country that had arisen in Latin America as a result of the recognition of Panama.

INCIDENTALLY, President Kennedy in his news conference announced: "We do not intend to take any action with respect to the property or other economic interests which American citizens formerly held in Cuba, other than formal and normal negotiations with a free and independent Cuba.

"The basic issue in Cuba is not one between the United States and Cuba. It is between the Cubans themselves."

Five days later—on Monday of this week—Secretary of State Rusk at a press conference carefully underlined in a written statement President Kennedy's concept of avoiding "intervention" in the internal affairs of Cuba.

He was asked and answered this question:

"Q. Does your categorical statement that we are not going to intervene in Cuba, period, mean that this administration is abandoning the traditional reservation that we reserve the right to intervene to protect American lives?

"A. That particular question is one for the future and I would not wish to relate it particularly to Cuba because of the debate now going on in the United Nations at this very moment."

So it is clear that the present disturbance is regarded as internal and there will be no armed "intervention" by United States forces.

ONCE, HOWEVER, a new government is established and recognized it will be given any help it needs if requested from the United States, including military aid.

If, before any new government arises, the existing regime endangers American lives or attacks the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo, this becomes an international rather than an internal affair and is subject to the usual rules of international law which sanction the use of military force in a foreign country.

Some may still call this "intervention" in an internal controversy but in diplomacy it is merely the exercise of an international right in an international dispute.

If Russia establishes a foothold in Cuba this could be considered a violation of the Monroe Doctrine and of defense treaties with Latin American states. The United States could resist the Russian move and this could mean war.

What Is Neutrality?

By Raymond Moley

In Japan, where the critical issues in Southeast Asia are more keenly felt than in the United States or the Soviet Union, the press and the government seem generally united in supporting the stand of the United States regarding Laos rather than that of the U.S.S.R.

Both hold the Soviet Union responsible for the trouble in Laos and insist that any solution must include the stopping of aid from Russia to the Communist rebels.

Both say a good deal about the virtues of neutrality for Laos.

But the Japanese as well as the Americans seem to have a very foggy view as to the meaning of true and durable neutrality.

In Japan this misunderstanding is more dangerous because when the concept is applied to Japan, it is likely to imply that the United States should withdraw its military forces from the country and also that Japan should not build up its own military forces for its own protection.

Thus the danger of unarmed, defenseless neutrality grows in many countries including Britain and Japan. And to a large degree those who talk about neutrality seem willing to accept neutrality in such countries as Laos as a state of utter weakness.

This concept fits perfectly with the policies of the Kremlin. And since the Soviet Union has shown no disposition to respect the neutrality of a country, it merely ceases to give military assistance but turns loose its powerful agencies of subversion and confusion so necessary to a successful civil revolt.

Only in the cases of Switzerland and Portugal has the Soviet been disposed to keep hands off completely. But both Switzerland and Portugal have strong military defenses.

Unfortunately the United States has incurred the ill will of the Portuguese government by its stand on Angola.

A few conservative members at Japan's Diet are the exceptions to the general idea of neutrality.

They realize that the only terms under which the safety of Japan can be assured is that, preliminary to the withdrawal of American forces, Japan should build up its military potential.

Since there will be needed far more proof that we have now that in any agreement with the Soviet Union subversion as well as military assistance will be discontinued, the United States may have to continue supplying military potential.

But such military aid to countries which aim at neutrality should be designed to help and teach the countries involved to provide the potential within themselves to defend their independence.

Decision On Student Aid

The Ohio General Assembly faces another decision this year on state aid to Ohio students who lack the money but are otherwise qualified to obtain college educations.

There are no less than three proposals now pending before committees. They would:

Abolish the Ohio Scholarship Funds set up by the 1959 assembly.

Change the scholarship setup to allow the state to finance directly outright grants to deserving students, instead of matching privately contributed funds and using only investment income for awards.

Establish an FHA-type guaranty program to insure private loans to students.

IT IS UNLIKELY, fortunately, that the first will get far in the legislative process.

The second represents a compromise between the state and the Ohio Colleges Association, which justifiably frowned on the prospect of the state's competing with privately endowed colleges for business contributions they have been receiving for a long time.

The sponsors of the third proposal have suggested that the loan-guaranty program be kicked off with $300,000 appropriated two years ago for the scholarship fund but so far unused.

Supporters of this idea argue that such a sum could insure up to $4.5 million in loans, which under the terms of the bill could assist 4,500 or more students during the first year of the plan's operation.

The scholarship fund law would remain on the books, and the trustees of that program would govern the loan program.

In view of the difficulty the scholarship program has had in getting started and the number of students who could seek quick assistance under the loan program, this idea appears to be worthy of immediate action.

IT MAY BE that in the development of a broader higher education program, Ohio will want eventually to use both approaches to student assistance. It would be unwise, in that case, to have completely scuttled the scholarship authorization now on the books.

But in the meantime, a lot more students could be helped more quickly by using what funds are currently available to start the loan program.

Total state financing of the scholarship funds would require considerably more money to reach as many students. These demands for money must be weighed against needs of the public school subsidy program and the state universities.

Another advantage of the loan approach is that it puts a greater share of the burden for qualification and performance on the student himself. In a system of outright grants, the burden is heavier on the state to sort out those who are deserving, capable and willing to exert their best efforts.

A similar loan program to the proposed in Ohio has been highly successful in Massachusetts, which is the reason the sponsors offered it for consideration. It should be given a try in Ohio.

Communism Is Always A Conspiracy

What if Russian-made tanks, planes, guns and political ideas never had been sent to Cuba and Fidel Castro had embraced Communist ideology of his own free will?

Would the United States have been as alarmed about that as it is about the abundant evidence that the Communist Conspiracy has been busy in Cuba?

The United States would be more concerned than alarmed if Cuba had taken up Communist doctrines without intercession by Russian, Chinese and Czech Communists. What has alarmed it is intercession by foreign powers, not the Communist ideology being preached by Castro.

Except for Yugoslavia under Marshal Tito, there is no country in which the Communist ideology is separated from the Moscow-dominated Communist Conspiracy. And even in Yugoslavia there continue to be strong ties with Communist China and with the doctrinaire Communists of Moscow. It is only in national politics that the Soviet Union and Yugoslavia fail to agree.

There never has been an example of any country's being Communist without a conspiratorial effort. Communism is not a native movement. It is a ideology that does not spring naturally from the aspirations of people.

Even in nations living under Communist rules the members of the Communist party are a small minority, as they are in the Soviet Union.

There never has been an example of a Communist government sustaining itself without harsh police methods.

No people ever have voted to be ruled by Communist totalitarians.

There would have been no Communist preachments or practices in Cuba without the Communist Conspiracy. And if it withdraws its support of Fidel Castro and his government, Cubans will be as anti-Communist — or perhaps as un-Communist—as if they never had heard of Castro and his Red companions.

Safe Dreamboat

Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Ribicoff drew snickers from a group of teen-agers the other day when he urged the girls to promote highway safety by refusing to date boys who drive like crazy.

But Mr. Ribicoff, who made quite a record for safety when he was governor of Connecticut, didn't mean to be funny. He was simply dealing with the facts of life. He proposes that the girls let the boys know they prize their lives more than an evening's entertainment.

The effect, the secretary says, would be to make the careful drivers the most popular boys and therefore the most likely to get dates.

It might be worth a try. Certainly a lot of parents of both boys and girls would be happy to promote the idea.

The old maxim that "a girl can't be too careful" could prove to be a powerful slogan for highway safety. It would no longer be enough for a boy to have a car to be a dreamboat; he would have to prove he was interested enough in his girl friend to keep her alive for another date.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

What the Free World needs most is good advertising. What we are doing for chewing gum, toothpaste, beer, entertainment and soda the enemy is doing for moon journeys and a sort of Kremlin "Get-Their-First Tonic."

Picking a sensational product capable of stirring the world, it puts everything else in the "Can Wait" file, concentrates on the one goal, steals a head start on copetitors, keeps its nose to the launching pad and sells itself with the ease of the man on the flying trapeze.

It is now clear the Soviets decided on this sensational product, and began to develop and market it away back when Uncle Sam was concentrating on more powerful booster devices for all the comforts of home and a pill for every dizzy spell.

Russia was hard at work with its eyes on the moon while the U.S.A., supposedly the king of advertising and smash salesmanship, was holding the lead in hi-fi records, luxury chariots, pari mutuel machinery, deep freeze fried clams, vacation resort motels and all-purpose slot machines.

Communism has nothing to sell but trouble, disorder, nonstop world friction, domination of small countries, prepackaged vilifications, three-way Nyet capsules and Old Dr. Lenin's Veto Pills.

Uncle Sam has almost everything that makes for human happiness and peaceful living. But he doesn't get his story across with anything like the American ability to sell a ski resort, a cake mix, a salad oil, a glass of schnapps, a hair tonic, or "twenty flavors of wonderful ice cream."

He has been fiddling while the enemy burned a pathway to the planets; doing a Jack Benny act while Khrushchev & Co. put everything into an outer-space show-of-shows. Let's face it: It's later than our advertising forces think.

TAHITI IS TO GET JET PLANE tourists at the rate of a thousand a week and now has berths for liners and big yachts. After all these years of paradise, will it take all the trials of civilization lying down?

Big accomplishment of Russian scientists was not so much that it put a man in space but put a smiling Russian in space.

President Kennedy wants to counter Russian man-in-space feat by converting salt water into fresh, as something more important to the future. Nothing is less realized by the man in the street than that there is a fresh water shortage. He finds it hard to believe that the day is coming when "How are things in outer space?" will be secondary to, "How are things in the water bucket?"

A big corporation held its annual meeting of stockholders in Carnegie Hall the session being preceded by a Philharmonic Orchestra rehearsal, led by Leonard Bernstein. Well, it would always be a little comforting to get arty atmosphere with news of a bad year's business. Maybe even a dividend cut would be easier to take in this famous concert hall where some of the great artists of the world had done their stuff.

Felix Wankel, German inventor, has developed an auto motor which operates on half the parts of standard car engines. The explosions act directly on crankshaft. "Look, Mom, no valves, no pistons, no carbon!"

The President is making a drive against red tape. Shucks! Doesn't he know it's a national hobby. Not even efficiency men will give it up.

Toothpaste company sponsored one of President Kennedy's recent TV appearances. Maybe to make it clear that the new frontiersmen won't be the old-fashioned type with two front teeth gone and not even missed.

Carl Sandburg and Howard Smith at Gettysburg with TV is so far the standout of events in the Civil War Centennial, but presentation late at night, instead of at an hour when kids and millions more adults would have tuned in, is hard to dig. Within one hour Sandburg projected a more gripping picture of Gettysburg, its generals and Abraham Lincoln than scores of books, plays and movies over the years.

SONG OF A COSMONAUT

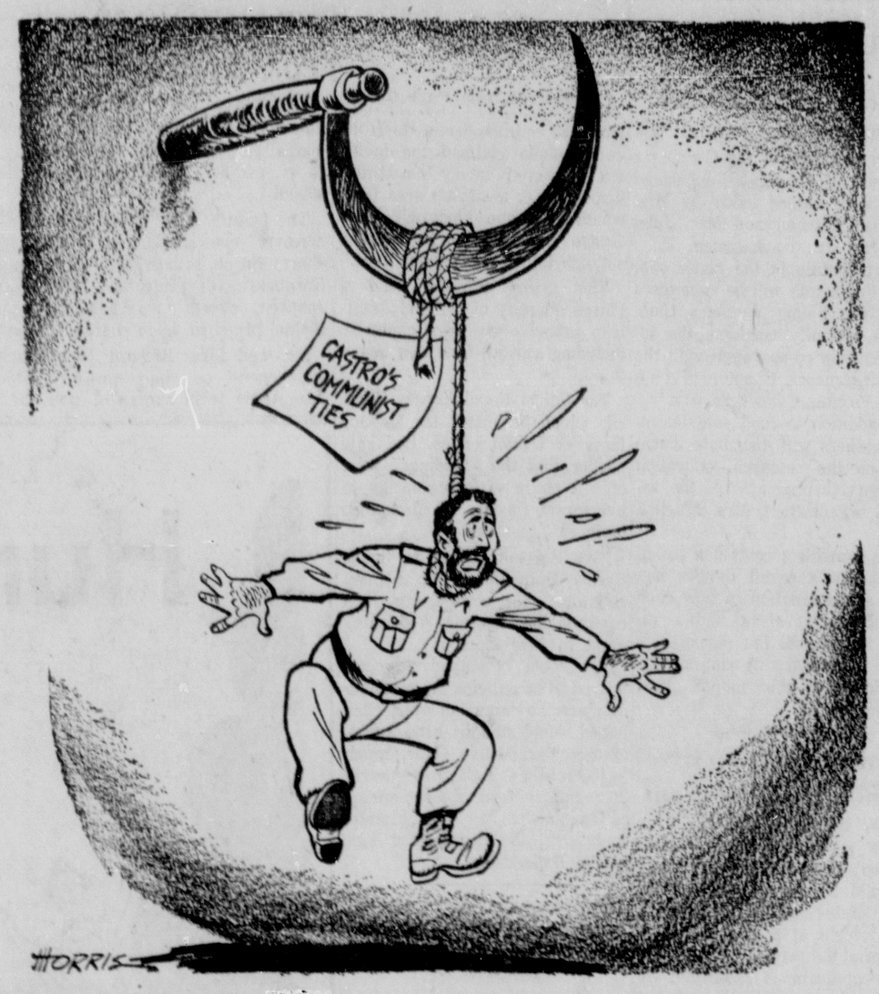
It was as smooth as apple pie;
Around the earth (I am not raving)
While lathering my face and shaving.

John F. Kennedy, at the age of 43, became the youngest man ever to be elected to the presidency of the United States. But Theodore Roosevelt was the youngest man ever to become President. He was only 42 when he assumed the presidency upon the assassination of President McKinley in 1901.

'Give A Man Enough Rope



Alex Rose Goes Into Action

By Victor Riesel

Inside John F. Kennedy's private White House office at 3:10 p.m. on Thursday, April 13, the conversation between the President and his two visitors turned toward pillboxes — not medical, not military but millinery. With Mr. Kennedy was an old friend, the glad hatter, Alex Rose, who wears two caps, one as president of the headgear union, the other as leader of New York's pivotal Liberal party. At the President's invitation he had come for a personal conference along with Arthur Goldberg.

Victor Riesel

Two "firsts" were set by that 45-minute personal visit. Mr. Rose was the first labor leader to be invited into the White House inner sanctum since the inauguration.

Also, as they walked in they found the President more relaxed than ever anyone had seen him in that office. So relaxed, in fact, that he reached for a long cigar and lit up.

Whatever it was that the President of the U.S. wanted to discuss with the president of the United Hatters, Cap and Millinery Workers must have been important.

It was a busy moment. Yuri Gagarin had just come in from outer space. Chancellor Adenauer had just come in from West Germany and was due back in the White House later that day. And there was Cuba.

THE PRESIDENT was as confident as he was ebullient. Soon after Mr. Rose entered the room which he had visited so frequently during the FDR and Truman days—President Kennedy smiled, puffed on the unprecedented cigar (positively not a Havana) and said:

"Your man, A. A. Berle, is doing an excellent job here."

Mr. Berle, honorary chairman of the Liberal party, is chairman of President Kennedy's Task Force on Latin America. The talk then lead to Konrad Adenauer and the booming German economy. About then Rose said:

"Mr. President, I want to thank your wife on behalf of the millinery workers. We are very grateful to her for helping to improve the economy in our industry."

John Kennedy grinned at this reference to Jackie's penchant for pillboxes. He was delighted and added, "But what about me?" Mr. Rose, labor's own Noel Coward, replied:

"You, Mr. President, are frequently seen with hat in hand. And our people say that a hat on the head is worth two in the hand."

So it is clear that the present disturbance is regarded as internal and there will be no armed "intervention" by United States forces.

ONCE, HOWEVER, a new government is established and recognized it will be given any help it needs if requested from the United States, including military aid.

If, before any new government arises, the existing regime endangers American lives or attacks the U.S. Naval Base at Guantanamo, this becomes an international rather than an internal affair and is subject to the usual rules of international law which sanction the use of military force in a foreign country.

Some may still call this "intervention" in an internal controversy but in diplomacy it is merely the exercise of an international right in an international dispute.

If Russia establishes a foothold in Cuba this could be considered a violation of the Monroe Doctrine and of defense treaties with Latin American states. The United States could resist the Russian move and this could mean war.

What Is Neutrality?

By Raymond Moley

In Japan, where the critical issues in Southeast Asia are more keenly felt than in the United States or the Soviet Union, the press and the government seem generally united in supporting the stand of the United States regarding Laos rather than that of the U.S.S.R.

Both hold the Soviet Union responsible for the trouble in Laos and insist that any solution must include the stopping of aid from Russia to the Communist rebels.

Both say a good deal about the virtues of neutrality for Laos.

But the Japanese as well as the Americans seem to have a very foggy view as to the meaning of true and durable neutrality.

In Japan this misunderstanding is more dangerous because when the concept is applied to Japan, it is likely to imply that the United States should withdraw its military forces from the country and also that Japan should not build up its own military forces for its own protection.

Thus the danger of unarmed, defenseless neutrality grows in many countries including Britain and Japan. And to a large degree those who talk about neutrality seem willing to accept neutrality in such countries as Laos as a state of utter weakness.

This concept fits perfectly with the policies of the Kremlin. And since the Soviet Union has shown no disposition to respect the neutrality of a country, it merely ceases to give military assistance but turns loose its powerful agencies of subversion and confusion so necessary to a successful civil revolt.

Only in the cases of Switzerland an. Portugal has the Soviet been disposed to keep hands off completely. But both Switzerland and Portugal have strong military defenses.

Unfortunately the United States has incurred the ill will of the Portuguese government by its stand on Angola.

A few conservative members at Japan's Diet are the exceptions to the general idea of neutrality.

They realize that the only terms under which the safety of Japan can be assured is that, preliminary to the withdrawal of American forces, Japan should build up its military potential.

Since there will be needed far more proof that we have now that in any agreement with the Soviet Union subversion as well as military assistance will be discontinued, the United States may have to continue supplying military potential.

But such military aid to countries which aim at neutrality should be designed to help and teach the countries involved to provide the potential within themselves to defend their independence.

Chlorinator Bid Received

A single bid for two new chlorinators for the Midland water department was opened Wednesday evening at a meeting of the Midland Municipal Authority and referred for study and recommendation.

The bid of $3,356, less $300 trade-in, was received from the Wallace & Tierman Co. Pittsburgh branch office. It was referred to the authority's purchasing committee, headed by Rudolph Presutti, and to Granville Kester, Michael Baker Jr., Inc., engineer for the authority.

Donald Craik, manager, reported that employes accepted paid-up insurance retroactive to Oct. 1, shortly after the authority's last meeting March 15. The contract has been sent to the employes' union representative, he said.

Kester presented drawings for an addition to the water department building, costing $30,000, including a conference room, clerk's office, a lobby for customers to pay bills and drive-in pay window. The plan also shows an extension of the existing garage.

The drawings were referred for committee study. Two other plans, estimated at $60,000 and $45,000, were submitted previously.

Bills totaling $25,420.08 were ordered paid and Mrs. Malena Westlake, treasurer, reported $110,412.17 in various accounts as of March 31.

Rudolph Presutti, vice president, presided. Dr. Zanvel Sigal, president, arrived later. Next meeting is May 17.

Stratton Council Signs Contracts

Formal contracts amounting to $299,673.13 were signed Tuesday night by Stratton Council and a Youngstown firm, clearing the way for the construction of new water and sewage facilities in the riverfront village.

The signing climaxed a year of work toward installation of water and sewer facilities in the Jefferson County village. Ballard & Mayfield of Canton, the consulting engineers, were represented at the meeting in Village Hall.

The facilities will serve an estimated 110 village residents, plus the new Edison Elementary School under construction nearby in the Stanton Local School District.

With only a few easements outstanding, the Youngstown firm may begin construction sometime next week. The firm will meet again with Council Monday night at 7:30 to complete final legislation.

The central water tank will be located on elevated property near the village, while the sewage plant will be erected on property in the south limits of the village near Empire.

Two 80-feet deep wells have already been drilled. The wells are capable of supplying 500 gallons of "soft" water per minute, according to Mayor Misconish. One well will stand in reserve for use in emergency.

Council obtained a loan of $125,000 from the Union Savings Bank & Trust Co. in Steubenville to cover part of the overall costs. Michael E. Yajko is the village clerk.

Home Demonstration Week Observance Set In Hancock

"Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World" is the theme for National Home Demonstration Week to be observed in Hancock County April 30-May 6, according to Oliver Johnson, county agricultural agent.

A series of events is planned by the County Council to inform residents of the program.

The first will be a television program Wednesday at 10:15 a. m. over WSTV, Steubenville, by Mrs. Ray Virtue, Mrs. Donald Mader and Mrs. Samuel Ballato.

May 2 will be Demonstration day at Swaney Memorial Library in New Cumberland. Mrs. Alice Van Landingham of the governor's committee on problems of the aging will appear. The public is invited.

During Home Demonstration Week, local clubs will arrange window displays in business places in the county and members will distribute home information and visit neighbors to tell of Farm Women's Club work.

Hancock County has 11 Farm Women's Clubs with 177 members in Chester, Newell, Pughtown, New Cumberland and Weirton. Four of the clubs have been organized since December by Mrs. John Village and Mrs. Donald Glenn.

Mrs. Wayland Lancaster is general chairman of the observance.

Landscape Architect Will Be In Hancock

Clifford Collier, new extension landscape architect of West Virginia, will work in Hancock County Monday on the development of recreational facilities at Brice Memorial Hall near New Cumberland.

Improving the recreational facilities is a project of the Jefferson Grange. Collier also will meet with a committee on roadside parks and assist with the planning of a demonstration landscape home. He is a native of Georgia.

Officers To Be Named At Teachers Banquet

Over 150 members and guests are expected to attend the annual spring banquet of the Columbiana County Education Association tonight at 6:30 at Beaver Local High School near Williamsport.

Officers will be elected, Jerry Russell of United Local School, president, said. Entertainment will include selections by the Beaver Local Masquers Club production, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," directed by Harry West.

George Ramming, who led the 1961 Ivy basketball league in scoring and rebounding, has broken the Dartmouth discuss throwing record six times.

Formal contracts amounting to $299,673.13 were signed Tuesday night by Stratton Council and a Youngstown firm, clearing the way for the construction of new water and sewage facilities in the riverfront village.

The signing climaxed a year of work toward installation of water and sewer facilities in the Jefferson County village. Ballard & Mayfield of Canton, the consulting engineers, were represented at the meeting in Village Hall.

The facilities will serve an estimated 110 village residents, plus the new Edison Elementary School under construction nearby in the Stanton Local School District.

With only a few easements outstanding, the Youngstown firm may begin construction sometime next week. The firm will meet again with Council Monday night at 7:30 to complete final legislation.

The central water tank will be located on elevated property near the village, while the sewage plant will be erected on property in the south limits of the village near Empire.

Two 80-feet deep wells have already been drilled. The wells are capable of supplying 500 gallons of "soft" water per minute, according to Mayor Misconish. One well will stand in reserve for use in emergency.

Council obtained a loan of $125,000 from the Union Savings Bank & Trust Co. in Steubenville to cover part of the overall costs. Michael E. Yajko is the village clerk.

Pinballs Moved, Taxes Still Due

WEIRTON — Those 327 pinball machines discovered by authorities in a Weirton storeroom March 21 have been moved elsewhere. But County Assessor Anthony Leon still plans to bill the owners for personal property tax assessments.

The pinball machines were seized by authorities along with eight slot machines. The illegal slot machines were destroyed last week by the county sheriff's office.

The assessor plans to impose a $753 personal property tax on the City Coin Service Co. of Bridgeville, Pa. The pinballs were valued at $45,000 and the assessment figure is based on half the value.

Authorities said they do not know where the new location of the pinball machines. The sheriff's office said it had no authority to place a "hold" on the machines because they are considered legal in the state.

Cars With Old Plates Ordered Off Streets

Cars lacking 1961 license plates should be removed from "dead storage" on streets by May 1, Police Chief Americo J. Radeschi warned motorists today.

After May 1, police will begin to tow away cars without current tags, the chief said. He pointed out a reminder was issued in early April that cars without 1961 plates could not be left on the streets. The new tags have been required since April 1.

The chief also warned district motorists officers have been instructed to begin a crackdown on cars with defective equipment, including inoperative headlights and tail lights. The defects should be corrected as soon as possible because they represent a safety hazard and could lead to a citation, the chief said.

County Trial Delay Seen

LISBON—Criminal trials, slated to start May 1, will be delayed because of appearances Prosecutor G. William Brokaw will make before the Ohio Supreme Court at Columbus and the 7th District Court of Appeals at Youngstown early next month.

The prosecutor will appear before the Supreme Court May 2 on his appeal of a reversed conviction of Louis (Mike) Stuttler, ex-East Liverpool police officer charged with a 1954 burglary of the Burbick Hardware Co.

The appellate court reversed the 1958 jury verdict on grounds the evidence did not show the entry was made in the night season as charged.

Don Burbick store operator, testified the entering took place sometime after the store closed on a Wednesday noon and before the store opened the next morning.

On May 3 the prosecutor will argue before the appellate court concerning the claimed civil service status of four Democrat-appointed employes who were replaced by appointees of the present Republican-dominated County Commissioners.

The Democrat appointees have filed a petition to have the court order the commissioners to sign pay vouchers. The Ohio Department of Personnel has refused to sign forms for the GOP appointees.

The Bloom's Off Public Affairs

Has the bloom worn off public affairs programming?

At NBC, where audience surveys are made at the drop of a rating point, the word is out that the great majority of viewers do not want "informational programing."

Marie Torre

In a Variety article titled "N B C TV Finds Out What Everybody Knows: Information Shows Don't Pull," a network study reveals that 23 per cent of the weekly schedule at NBC consists of informational programming, yet draws only 13 per cent of the viewing audience for the network.

If this is unsettling to NBC officials, their counterparts at the rival networks ought to be even more unsettled, the study implies, for CBS and ABC are faring worse with their public service shows.

THOUGH WE'RE not from Missouri, the study arouses our suspicions.

In the first place, if "everybody knows" that public affairs shows don't pull, why undertake such a survey? In the second place, why did NBC permit information that was obviously intended for inter-office circulation to be printed in a trade paper?

Can it be there is a campaign afoot to degrade public affairs programming? Can it be that the concentration on public affairs has been simply a matter of good public relations, to kill off the bad odor left by the quiz scandal, and that many of these programs will be dropped after they achieve the necessary effect?

This would be a painful occurrence, painful to any serious observer of TV who believes that television excellence is not something to be determined by majority vote. While the medium obviously must continue to provide mass entertainment, it must also assume the responsibility of elevating taste and the intelligence quotient. It must shake the apathy of its audience with new ideas, new concepts and challenges.

THE OBJECTIVE of public affairs producers should not be to appeal solely to the eggheads, who will watch every TV documentary, but to try and appeal also to the Joe Blows whose TV tastes run to Westerns and action adventures and other forms of escape entertainment that insulate them from the realities of the modern world.

Public affairs programs cry for more showmanship and excitement and less of the ponderous, pedestrian, pontifical attitude they often take.

Some months ago, when "CBS Reports" producer Fred W. Friendly was preparing "Biography of a Missile," he said during a moment of truth:.

"If shooting a live missile into outer space for keeps isn't more interesting than shooting a Colt 45 into a 19th century villain, then the producers of Westerns know their job better than we do ours."

Clearly NBC would have served a far greater purpose if instead of making a study on who is watching public affairs shows, it conducted a survey on why more people are not watching public affairs shows.

ARTHUR GODFREY, who recently announced his intention to withdraw from "Candid Camera" at season's end, will be replaced by Bill Cullen in the fall. . . .

The Los Angeles police department, which provided much of the material for "Dragnet," will do the same for "The New Breed," an hour-long ABC series which will premiere in the new season with Leslie Nielsen as top sleuth. . . .

Promised for showing in the "CBS Reports" special titled "Why Man in Space?" are stop-motion films of dust storms on Mars, the moons revolving about Jupiter, and a "closeup" of Saturn and its rings. . . .

In retirement these last six years, Eddie Cantor returns to radio with a daily five-minute series called "Ask Eddie Cantor," which will be syndicated by Lika Productions of New York. . . .

Harpo Marx, who adheres to the "silence is golden" rule, will make a number of TV and radio appearances in the coming weeks to herald publication of his book. "Harpo Speaks." He'll not "speak" on the shows, however. Harpo has solved the radio problem by getting his wife, Susan, who did the illustrations for the book, to consent to be his voice.

Sewage Rate System Aired For Crucible

Setting up sewage treatment rates for the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. was discussed Wednesday evening at a special joint meeting of Crucible representatives, Midland Council and the Midland Municipal Authority.

Crucible had asked Council to set a meeting so that a method might be determined for setting rates agreeable to the company and the borough.

The rates will be for the Midland Works' sanitary system which empties into that of the borough at two points.

George M. Burrier, works manager, attended along with A. T. Forrest, chief engineer, and Tom Conti, pollution control engineer, all of Crucible.

Myron A. Wayne, sanitation engineer for Michael Baker Jr., Inc., Rochester engineers making a rate study for the borough, also attended along with Granville Kester, Baker engineer for the water authority. Burgess Eli Corak was present and Councilman Harvey Sponcer, vice president, presided.

It was agreed that sanitation engineers of Baker will make "weir" tests on sewage volume of the Midland Works in co-operation with Crucible engineers.

The flow at Crucible has been estimated between 90,000 and 150,000 gallons per day. Rates may be based either on actual metered flow or by a flat rate based on readings and correlated to the number of employes.

It was pointed out that a flat rate is more feasible since constance maintenance is involved with rates fixed on meter readings.

Kester said rates will have to be based on total cost of bond retirement and operation of the new plant, which is expected to begin after May 1.

Wayne gave several examples of industrial rates charged in other towns. He said that at New Brighton, it is $1.60 per employe per quarter based on 40 gallons of flow per each employe. In Borough Township, which has the Westinghouse plant, the rate is $1.25 based on 30 gallons. Monaca has an identical rate of $1.25, he said.

Burrier pointed out that Crucible may pay over half the cost of the plant each year. He said that if the plant cost $60,000 a year then with some 7,500 employed at Crucible, the company would pay about $37,000 a year.

Burrier also asked what rates would be charged residents and Wayne said they would probably be charged a flat rate rather than one based on water meters.

Council's rate study by Baker is supposed to be about May 1.

A letter was read from President John Kennedy and Frank Ellis, federal CD director, on preparedness.

Out Of The Air

By MARIE TORRE

The Bloom's Off Public Affairs

Has the bloom worn off public affairs programming?

At NBC, where audience surveys are made at the drop of a rating point, the word is out that the great majority of viewers do not want "informational programing."

Marie Torre

In a Variety article titled "N B C TV Finds Out What Everybody Knows: Information Shows Don't Pull," a network study reveals that 23 per cent of the weekly schedule at NBC consists of informational programming, yet draws only 13 per cent of the viewing audience for the network.

If this is unsettling to NBC officials, their counterparts at the rival networks ought to be even more unsettled, the study implies, for CBS and ABC are faring worse with their public service shows.

THOUGH WE'RE not from Missouri, the study arouses our suspicions.

In the first place, if "everybody knows" that public affairs shows don't pull, why undertake such a survey? In the second place, why did NBC permit information that was obviously intended for inter-office circulation to be printed in a trade paper?

Can it be there is a campaign afoot to degrade public affairs programming? Can it be that the concentration on public affairs has been simply a matter of good public relations, to kill off the bad odor left by the quiz scandal, and that many of these programs will be dropped after they achieve the necessary effect?

This would be a painful occurrence, painful to any serious observer of TV who believes that television excellence is not something to be determined by majority vote. While the medium obviously must continue to provide mass entertainment, it must also assume the responsibility of elevating taste and the intelligence quotient. It must shake the apathy of its audience with new ideas, new concepts and challenges.

THE OBJECTIVE of public affairs producers should not be to appeal solely to the eggheads, who will watch every TV documentary, but to try and appeal also to the Joe Blows whose TV tastes run to Westerns and action adventures and other forms of escape entertainment that insulate them from the realities of the modern world.

Public affairs programs cry for more showmanship and excitement and less of the ponderous, pedestrian, pontifical attitude they often take.

Some months ago, when "CBS Reports" producer Fred W. Friendly was preparing "Biography of a Missile," he said during a moment of truth:.

"If shooting a live missile into outer space for keeps isn't more interesting than shooting a Colt .45 into a 19th century villain, then the producers of Westerns know their job better than we do ours."

Clearly NBC would have served a far greater purpose if instead of making a study on who is watching public affairs shows, it conducted a survey on why more people are not watching public affairs shows.

ARTHUR GODFREY, who recently announced his intention to withdraw from "Candid Camera" at season's end, will be replaced by Bill Cullen in the fall. . . .

The Los Angeles police department, which provided much of the material for "Dragnet," will do the same for "The New Breed," an hour-long ABC series which will premiere in the new season with Leslie Nielsen as top sleuth. . . .

Promised for showing in the "CBS Reports" special titled "Why Man in Space?" are stop-motion films of dust storms on Mars, the moons revolving about Jupiter, and a "closeup" of Saturn and its rings. . . .

In retirement these last six years, Eddie Cantor returns to radio with a daily five-minute series called "Ask Eddie Cantor," which will be syndicated by Lika Productions of New York. . . .

Harpo Marx, who adheres to the "silence is golden" rule, will make a number of TV and radio appearances in the coming weeks to herald publication of his book. "Harpo Speaks." He'll not "speak" on the shows, however. Harpo has solved the radio problem by getting his wife, Susan, who did the illustrations for the book, to consent to be his voice.

Sewage Rate System Aired For Crucible

Setting up sewage treatment rates for the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co. was discussed Wednesday evening at a special joint meeting of Crucible representatives, Midland Council and the Midland Municipal Authority.

Crucible had asked Council to set a meeting so that a method might be determined for setting rates agreeable to the company and the borough.

The rates will be for the Midland Works' sanitary system which empties into that of the borough at two points.

Myron A. Wayne, sanitation engineer for Michael Baker Jr., Inc., Rochester engineers making a rate study for the borough, also attended along with Granville Kester, Baker engineer for the water authority. Burgess Eli Corak was present and Councilman Harvey Sponcer, vice president, presided.

It was agreed that sanitation engineers of Baker will make "weir" tests on sewage volume of the Midland Works in co-operation with Crucible engineers.

The flow at Crucible has been estimated between 90,000 and 150,000 gallons per day. Rates may be based either on actual metered flow or by a flat rate based on readings and correlated to the number of employes.

It was pointed out that a flat rate is more feasible since constance maintenance is involved with rates fixed on meter readings.

Kester said rates will have to be based on total cost of bond retirement and operation of the new plant, which is expected to begin after May 1.

Wayne gave several examples of industrial rates charged in other towns. He said that at New Brighton, it is $1.60 per employe per quarter based on 40 gallons of flow per each employe. In Borough Township, which has the Westinghouse plant, the rate is $1.25 based on 30 gallons. Monaca has an identical rate of $1.25, he said.

Burrier pointed out that Crucible may pay over half the cost of the plant each year. He said that if the plant cost $60,000 a year then with some 7,500 employed at Crucible, the company would pay about $37,000 a year.

Burrier also asked what rates would be charged residents and Wayne said they would probably be charged a flat rate rather than one based on water meters.

Council's rate study by Baker is supposed to be about May 1.

Troop Has Party For Scoutmaster

Boy Scout Troop 31 of the Orchard Grove Methodist Church held a surprise appreciation party Monday night at the church for Barry Badgley, scoutmaster. Fifty boys and parents attended.

Jim Lanse, senior patrol leader, presented his mother with a corsage. William Kreiser gave Badgley a gift. Robert Gray, Cherokee District scout executive, was guest speaker.

The Rev. James Gardner offered prayer. Adolf Brandt Jr. introduced guests, including Francis Lanse, Region 4 executive; Fred Yonz, assistant district commissioner; William Rayburn, camping and activities chairman, and Dean Senenifis of the Shawnee District.

Mrs. Mary Brandt and Mrs. Dorothy Ellis served refreshments. The troop committee complete the charter renewal application. A movie was screened.

15 At Meeting Held By Women's CD Unit

About 15 attended a meeting of the Women's Civil Defense Council Wednesday night at the City Hall at which Mrs. Edna Sweeney reported a request has been received from a Middleton (N. J.) Parent-Teacher group for information on how the CD sponsored a home preparedness course in the public schools.

A letter was read from President John Kennedy and Frank Ellis, federal CD director, on preparedness.

The group assisted in the tabulation and collection of Cancer Fund contributions. Next meeting is May 18.

Field Narrowed To 7 As Junior Tourney Gets Underway

Anonymous Person Donates $5,000

Drive Launched To Raise $10,000 For Lights At Beaver Local Field

Kicked off by $5,000 from an anonymous donor, a citizens' committee has launched a drive to raise an additional $10,000 for the purpose of erecting lights at the Beaver Local High School football field by the time the 1961 season opens.

The funds will be raised through a personal contact drive, with Dr. Arthur J. Cloran serving as acting chairman of the committee.

The $15,000 campaign will continue three weeks, beginning today. It is scheduled to end by May 9. Cloran said $1,000 already has been raised in addition to the $5,000 from the anonymous donor.

The committee, a one-function group which will be disbanded at the completion of the project, has been named the Beaver Local Football Light Committee.

The group met Tuesday and Wednesday and a list of residents in the Beaver Local School District was prepared for possbile solicitations among residents and business establishments of the district.

Cloran said two "thermometers" showing the progress of the drive have been erected. One stands in front of the Beaver Local High School at Williamsport, while another will be placed in the Calcutta area and moved around in the district. The "thermometers" are marked off in $1,000 sections, from $1,000 to $10,000.

"The success of the drive will depend a lot on the community spirit of the poeple," Cloran pointed out.

The installation of lights and poles will cost almost $12,000. The remaining $3,000 will be used for an electric scoreboard and a public address system at the field.

In addition to having night football, the lights can be adjusted and a conversion can be made to light a baseball diamond in the immediate vicinity of the football field.

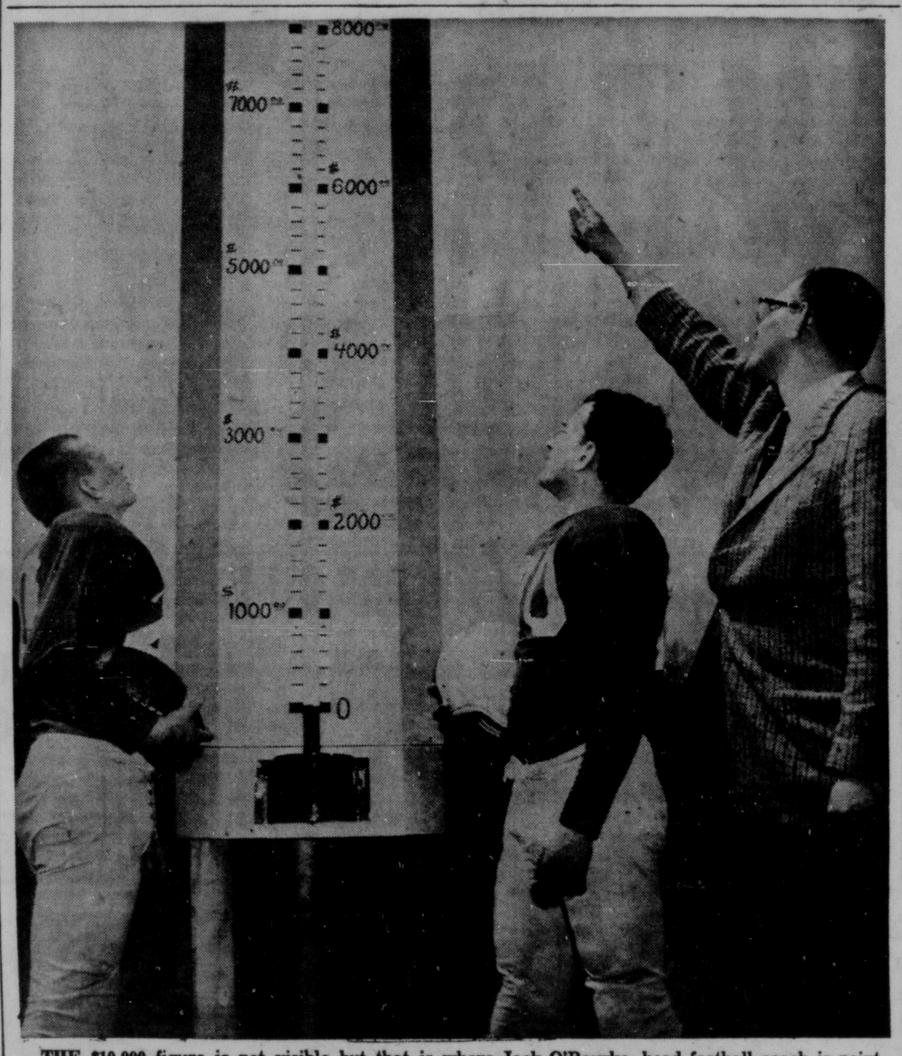
Cloran said the drive got started after the $5,000 donation had been made towards the project some time ago.

The drive has been approved by the Board of Education.

The committee will meet and report once a week, making a total of three times during the drive.

Solicitors and their districts follow:

George Van Horne, Lee Kirkland, Roy Cashdollar, Leola Barton and Mildred Emmerling, school; Kim Crawford, Wallace Swaney, Mary Berger, Rogers; Mrs. Charles Smith, Mike Klembara, Naomi Dailey and Gail Williams, West Point; Kenneth Eells, Myron McCamon and Mrs. James McLaughlin, Elkton; Cloran, Harvey Moninger, Ed Morse, Don Myer, Arthur Doak, Aldolph Brandt, Clayton Aughinbaugh and George Shaw, Calcutta.



THE $10,000 figure is not visible but that is where Jack O'Rourke, head football coach is pointing, on the "thermometer" which will show the progress of the campaign now underway to raise funds for the installation of lights at the Beaver Local High School football field. Looking on are Francis Possage (left) and Dave Stacey, who will be candidates for the Beaver Local varsity grid squad next season. The "thermometer" is located in front of Beaver Local High School.

Little League Sets Work Party Saturday

Fathers of Little League and Minor League players are requested to report to the Travelers Hotel Saturday at 9 a. m. for another "work party" to prepare equipment for the coming season. Workers are asked to bring paint brushes, hammers and saws.

Potter Golf Team Second

The East Liverpool High golf team, defending district champion, finished second in a triangular match Wednesday at the Woodview Club near New Cumberland.

Litten Entry Slates Practice On Friday

The Litten's entry of the Pony League will practice Friday at 5:30 p. m. at Dopler Field, Homer Ensinger, manager, announced.

Weirton won the match with nine points. East Liverpool finished with four and a half and Weirton Madonna failed to score.

Ray Kipinski of Weirton took medalist honors with a 37 while junior Bob Putt paced the Potters with a 38. Other Potter scores were Bob Gilmore 46 and Dick Crable and Steve Cooper 52's.

The Potters meet Steubenville Central today at the East Liverpool Country Club and face Beaver Local here Friday.

Any day now they'll be calling sliced home runs over the left field screen in the Los Angeles Coliseum "moon-shots." That's because the Dodgers' southpaw swinging Wally Moon appears to have perfected the art of dumping fly balls for homers in that sector.

Moon has hit six home runs in eight games, all over the Coliseum's 42-foot-high left field screen, only 251 feet from home plate. The Dodger outfielder, an honor student at Texas A&M some years ago, claims a newly perfected "reverse english" swing has been largely responsible for his sudden rash of homers.

In any event, Wally struck two of those "moon-shots" Wednesday night to lead the Dodgers to a 7-2 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals. The first homer came with two on in the first inning. The second was a solo flight in the fourth. He walked in the sixth and slashed a run-scoring single—to center—in the seventh to account for five runs batted in with a perfect evening at the plate.

Cincinnati made it two straight over San Francisco with a 4-2 triumph and retained first place in the National League. Pittsburgh climbed into second place with a 4-1 victory over Chicago. Rain in the seventh spoiled a shutout bid by Friend.

BOB FRIEND
Hits Mid-Season Form.

Eddie Kasko's scoring single sparked a two-run ninth that enabled the Reds to snap a 2-2 tie with the Giants. Rookie righthander Ken Hunt worked eight innings and won his first major league start. Jack Sanford was the loser.

Bob Friend pitched a three-hitter and Dick Groat, Bob Skinner and Roberto Clemente each had two hits in the Pirate victory over the Cubs. Ernie Banks' home run stopped Milwaukee and Philadelphia for the second straight day.

Don Drysdale, although tagged for nine hits, went all the way for the Dodgers, to record his second victory against one defeat. Ernie Broglio was the loser.

Berths in the semi-finals will be at stake tonight in the second round of the Junior Basketball Tournament at Memorial Auditorium.

The 14th annual tourney of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club got off to a rousing start Wednesday night as three teams scored victories to advance.

The original 10-team field was reduced to seven following triumphs in the opening round by Riverview Florists, Spinetti's Department Store of Tiltonsville, and Sevy's Drugs.

Leading off tonight's action at 7 will be Russell's Dairy of Wellsville going against the Tiltonsville quint.

Coached by Jerry Russell, the dairymen list Rodney Ferguson, Phil Baldwin, Wilbur Jones and Rick Grey of the Wellsville High varsity, plus Gary Pisarsky and Bud Leatherberry of Salineville.

The second game at 8 pits Marland Heights Drugs of Weirton, the 1958 champion, against Sevy's Drugs, the latter team listing players from Campbell Memorial and Youngstown.

In the nightcap at 9, tourney favorite Gengarallas sends East Liverpool's All-Ohio Ken Cunningham, Ken Miller, Perry Hurst, Carl Anderson of Midland, and stars from Uniontown against Uncle Pete's of Wellsville.

Gengarallas is favored to sweep past Uncle Pete's in the tourney opener for both teams. Uncle Pete's lists Mac Comparetto, Ben Cannadate and Bill DeSarro of Wellsville, plus Tom Bell and Larry Hutton of Newell.

The tourney opened with a flourish Wednesday night as Riverview Florists nipped Burt's Confectionery of New Cumberland in an exceptionally well-played game, 77-75.

Bill Maynard, 5-8 drive - shot artist and playmaker from Cleveland West Tech, stole the thunder for Riverview Florists with a standout performance. Teammate Bob Guzik scored 19 points to lead the Florists past the New Cumberland entry.

The opener was close the entire distance and the small crowd on hand saw fine shooting by both squads. The entire Riverview roster is from the Cleveland area.

Phil Cullen of the Confectionery, former New Cumberland star, flipped in 26 points in the defeat to take individual scoring honors for the opening round. Mickey and Jerry Pierce, twins, chipped in with 19 and 18 points, respectively. Both showed accuracy from long range and plenty of ability in rebounding and defense.

Spinetti's Department Store of Tiltonsville eliminated Village Green, 63-51, as big Doug Kinnison, a standout in last year's tourney, sparked the victory.

With stars from Tiltonsville and Wheeling in the lineup, Spinetti's turned on the steam in the final quarter to score an impressive victory. The third period ended, 46-40.

Village Green, listing players from Midland, was led by Rick Lake's 11 points, while fiery redhead Harry Petrosky scored 10 in a fine performance.

Sevy's Drugs defeated ELGGA of East Liverpool, 60-28, in the final game of the opening round. Though the action was slowed considerably by heavy fouling, the local entry provided perhaps the only "comedy" of the action.

Sevy's Drugs raced to an early lead and coasted to the victory. Bob Geletka scored 16 points for the druggists, while Jim Putko had 14.

Mike Geon, former Potter varsith performer, led ELGGA with 13 points. Ron Montgomery finished second high with eight. ELGGA counted up four foul casualties in Gary Montgomery, Geon, Frank Linkous and Tom Clark.

Admission for tonight's second round will again be 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. Admission Friday and Saturday nights will be $1 for adults and the same price for students.

The semi-finals will be played Friday and the championship and consolation rounds Saturday.

Field Narrowed To 7 As Junior Tourney Gets Underway

Anonymous Person Donates $5,000

Drive Launched To Raise $10,000 For Lights At Beaver Local Field

Kicked off by $5,000 from an anonymous donor, a citizens' committee has launched a drive to raise an additional $10,000 for the purpose of erecting lights at the Beaver Local High School football field by the time the 1961 season opens.

The funds will be raised through a personal contact drive, with Dr. Arthur J. Cloran serving as acting chairman of the committee.

The $15,000 campaign will continue three weeks, beginning today. It is scheduled to end by May 9. Cloran said $1,000 already has been raised in addition to the $5,000 from the anonymous donor.

The committee, a one-function group which will be disbanded at the completion of the project, has been named the Beaver Local Football Light Committee.

The group met Tuesday and Wednesday and a list of residents in the Beaver Local School District was prepared for possbile solicitations among residents and business establishments of the district.

Cloran said two "thermometers" showing the progress of the drive have been erected. One stands in front of the Beaver Local High School at Williamsport, while another will be placed in the Calcutta area and moved around in the district. The "thermometers" are marked off in $1,000 sections, from $1,000 to $10,000.

"The success of the drive will depend a lot on the community spirit of the poeple," Cloran pointed out.

The installation of lights and poles will cost almost $12,000. The remaining $3,000 will be used for an electric scoreboard and a public address system at the field.

In addition to having night football, the lights can be adjusted and a conversion can be made to light a baseball diamond in the immediate vicinity of the football field.

Cloran said the drive got started after the $5,000 donation had been made towards the project some time ago.

The drive has been approved by the Board of Education.

The committee will meet and report once a week, making a total of three times during the drive.

Solicitors and their districts follow:

George Van Horne, Lee Kirkland, Roy Cashdollar, Leola Barton and Mildred Emmerling, school; Kim Crawford, Wallace Swaney, Mary Berger, Rogers; Mrs. Charles Smith, Mike Klembara, Naomi Dailey and Gail Williams, West Point; Kenneth Eells, Myron McCamon and Mrs. James McLaughlin, Elkton; Cloran, Harvey Moninger, Ed Morse, Don Myer, Arthur Doak, Aldolph Brandt, Clayton Aughinbaugh and George Shaw, Calcutta.

THE $10,000 figure is not visible but that is where Jack O'Rourke, head football coach is pointing, on the "thermometer" which will show the progress of the campaign now underway to raise funds for the installation of lights at the Beaver Local High School football field. Looking on are Francis Possage (left) and Dave Stacey, who will be candidates for the Beaver Local varsity grid squad next season. The "thermometer" is located in front of Beaver Local High School.

CLEVELAND (AP) — For the first time in the young baseball season, the Cleveland Indians' relief pitching failed to do the job.

Frank Funk, who had not been scored on in two previous appearances, was pounded for four runs by the Detroit Tigers in the eighth inning Wednesday. The surge sent the Tigers ahead for a 5-2 victory, disappointing Indian supporters among the crowd of 28,216 that turned out for the home opener at Municipal Stadium.

Starter Jim Perry, like Funk, was bothered by wildness. Perry was replaced in the seventh inning with one out and bases loaded and the Indians nursing a 2-1 lead.

With one out and Dick Brown on base, Perry hit pinch batter Charlie Maxwell and walked Larry Osborne. Then Funk came in and pitched one ball to Jake Wood, who hit into a double play.

Manager Jimmie Dykes said he relieved Perry, who allowed four hits and one run, because his ace right-hander had started to "stiffen up" the inning before.

"He (Perry) told me it was happening, so his wildness was no surprise," Dykes remarked after the game.

In the eighth inning, Funk walked the first two men up. Rocky Colavito sacrificed the runners along, and Norm Cash was walked intentionally. Then Steve Boros doubled, scoring three runs. A single and a sacrifice brought Boros home.

The Indians started off as though the day might be a repetition of the season opener for the two teams last week, when Perry went all the way for a 9-5 victory.

In the first inning John Temple got on base with a bunt and raced home when Tito Francona doubled to left center. Francona scored when Dick Brown threw wild trying to catch Willie Kirkland stealing second base. Kirkland had gotten on base on an error.

The Tigers scored in the fourth on a single by Billy Bruton and a double by Al Kaline.

Terry Fox, who relieved Detroit starter Jim Bunning in the seventh inning, got the victory.

Garry Bell (0-1) was to be opposed by Detroit's Frank Lary today. Lary threw a one - hitter against Chicago in his first start.

The Indians take off Friday for Kansas City.

In the only other game played in the American League, Washington defeated the Chicago White Sox 7-2. Rain forced the postponement of the Minnesota-Red Sox game in Boston, and the Los Angeles-Yankee game in New York and Kansas City at Baltimore.

Marty Kutyna, a pickup from Kansas City last December, pitched six scoreless relief innings against the White Sox, and singled across two runs in the fourth to give the Senators a 4-2 lead. He yielded only four hits after replacing starter Ed Hobaugh in the third to get the victory.

Billy Pierce, who yielded for a pinchhitter in the fourth, was the White Sox starter and loser.

Finnish Cop Places First In Marathon

BOSTON (AP) —Eino Oksanen is a tight-lipped police detective whose persistent methods have extended Finland's domination of the Boston A. A. Marathon to three straight years.

For the second time in the last three tests, the 30-year-old Helsinki native used endurance and strategy to defeat America's Johnny Kelley.

However, the heroic role was reserved for third place Englishman Fred Norris who helped Kelley to his feet when the latter was spilled by a stray dog 10 miles from the end.

In a carbon copy of his 1959 performance when he conquered similar bone-chilling cold to whip Kelley in 2:22:42, Oksanen again bided his time in a stride-for-stride duel with the Groton, Conn., schoolteacher until he was sure his move to the front would not give his adversary time to recover.

This time Oksanen moved ahead by 10 yards with half a mile to go and won by 125 yards. The clockings: Oksanen 2:23:29, Kelley 2:23:54, Norris 2:25:46.

Lake Ball Field's Use To Continue

LISBON — The West Township Ruritan Club and residents in the area of New Alexander have received word for the Ohio Natural Resources Department that they can continue to use their ball field on the Zepernick State Park wildlife area, which has been purchased by the state.

The department advised the club the field will not be disturbed and that it could be used for the youth program as long as it kept up.

The club acted after it heard that the department planned to lease the eight-acre plot for planting of corn. The club said it had spent $300 in developing the ball field and requested that it be spared for use of the Little League.

Shallenberger Tosses 1-Hitter For Beavers

Beaver Local's pitching staff continued to be stingy with their hits as Tom Shallenberger hurled a one-hitter Wednesday at the Beaver Local field in a 3-0 victory over Newell.

Shallenberger pitched no-hit ball for six innings until Monroe, the leadoff batter in the seventh inning, stroked a single for Newell's lone safety. The Beaver Local hurler fanned 11 batters and gave up only three walks.

The Beavers in capturing their second straight contest, punched across lone runs in the second, fifth and sixth innings.

Dick Barnhart paced Beaver Local at the plate with a double and single plus one RBI. Gary Hickman double in one run and John Broadbent knocked in the other.

Shallenberger helped his own cause with a double and scored on run.

Tom Woods, the losing hurler, gave up seven hits.

Pender Rates 2-1 Favorite

BOSTON (AP) — Paul Pender, 2-1 favorite to retain his version of the world middleweight title against the challenge of veteran Carmen Basilio Saturday, today began tapering off his extensive training program.

Pender, whose title is recognized in Massachusetts, New York and Europe, went five rounds against two sparring partners Wednesday, the last boxing he will do before he and Basilio start a scheduled 15 round nationally televised bout in Boston Garden.

"I'm as ready as I'll ever be," Pender said Wednesday. "I feel very good, very sharp. I'll have to be as good as I ever was to beat him."

Wednesday's five rounds boosted to 112 the number of rounds he has worked in preparation for this one, more than for any of his four previous fights.

Basilio, who has won two straight 10-rounders in a comeback, has not boxed since late last week.

"I've had two fights and 80 rounds. That's enough," he said, and concentrated only on some roadwork and loosening up.

Former infielder Wayne Terwilliger will manage the Greensboro Yankees in the Carolina League this season.

Leetonia High Runners Win

LEETONIA — Jackson - Milton visited here Wednesday but went home soundly beaten, 93½-24½, by Leetonia High's track forces.

The Bears captured 12 of 14 events in registering the victory.

Bob Gullett paced Leetonia by finishing first in three events.

He won both hurdle events and captured the broad jump.

Eric Painter and Rickey Smith were double winners. Painter scored a victory with a 2:10.2 clocking in the 880-yard run and a leap of 5-feet-9 in the high jump. Smith copped the 220-yard dash in 25.4 and tied with teammate Ed Rowedda in the 100-yard dash. Both runners hit the tape in 11.2.

Ellis, Kristof Take Lead In ABC Doubles

DETROIT (AP) — Chicagoans Don Ellis and Joe Kristof may become the classic division doubles champions of the 1961 American Bowling Congress Tournament.

The two, members of the Strike 'n' Spare team, rolled into the two-man lead Wednesday on a 1,331 total with a 437-404-490 string.

Ellis fired a 678 and Kristof 653 as they ousted the erstwhile leaders, Duke Marquardt and Bob Brayman of Detroit who had 1,318. It was the first change of a division leader since April 7.

Masters Rematch Due In Houston Tourney

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Arnold Palmer and Gary Player resumed their golf duel today in the opening round of the $40,000 Houston Classic.

The stars of the Masters tournament two weeks ago were heavy favorites to battle it out for the $7,000 first prize.

Palmer rated a narrow edge although his first practice rounds since losing to Player at Augusta were not as impressive as those of the South Africa star.

After a week's absence from the tournament trail, Player tuned up practice rounds of 70, 66, and 68 for the 7,122-yard, par 35-35—70 Memorial Park course. Palmer had a 74 Tuesday and declined to discuss his score for his final warm up Wednesday.

The favorite's role went to Palmer on the strength of his having won $12,851.11 at Memorial since 1955. He won the Classic in 1957, was one stroke off the pace in 1959, and lost an 18-hole playoff last year to Bill Collins.

In addition to Collins and Palmer, today's starting field of 107 pros and 5 amateurs included four other winners of the Classic, Mike Souchak, Jack Burke Jr., Marty Furgol, and Dave Douglas.

Liston Buys Contract To Get Shot At Floyd

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK (AP)—Sonny Liston, the No. 1 heavyweight boxing contender, may get his long-sought crack at Floyd Patterson's world title next year if he satisfies all concerned that he is free of undesirable associates.

But his parting Wednesday with manager Joseph Barone brought only lukewarm reactions from two of those most concerned—Patterson and Sen. Estes Kefauver, sponsor of a bill to place boxing under federal control.

Liston bought his contract from Barone after a conference at Allentown, Pa., in which the manager agreed to accept $75,000, to be paid from Liston's earnings over the next two years.

Kefauver has said that Barone was only a front for Frankie Carbo and Blinky Palermo, alleged underworld boxing figures, and that he feared the heavyweight title would "revert to mob control" if Liston should win it.

Patterson, who has refused to consider a bout with Liston because of his associates, said that Sonny "will still have to prove that he is free of all outside harmful influences" before he could qualify for a title bout.

The fact that Liston "ostensibly" has purchased his contract from Barone doesn't remove all the objections, the champion said.

Patterson also told Tom Bolan, president of Championship Sports, Inc., the new promotional corporation, that since Liston mentioned satisfying the Kefauver committee, that would seem to be Liston's first step toward clearing the way for a fight.

Liston said that before signing with a new manager he would submit the name to Kefauver for approval.

"I'm not in the manager-picking business," the senator said when told of his suggestion.

"I'd like to see Liston get a shot at the title if he finally has shed all the barnacles he has been carrying. But he still may have to shed some others."

Do you know what those $10, $11, $12 nylon tires are really worth?

The best way for you to find out what a tire is really worth? Use it. But then it may be too late. How can you find out before you buy? The price tag won't tell you. There are so-called "bargain" tires, "cheapie" tires, "discount" tires and other tires you've never heard of. Most of them have one thing in common. They do a lot of shouting about price. But there's a big difference in what goes into them, as compared to a Goodyear tire. We took nine "bargain" nylon cord tires priced at $10, $11, $12 or more to the lab for analysis and matched them to our $12.88 3-T Nylon All-Weather.

What a difference! The Goodyear tire had a 23.2% stronger tire body than the average rating of the rest. And the tread strength rating of our 3-T Nylon All-Weather was also actually greater than the average of the others.

Price tags never tell the full story! Get a genuine Goodyear tire. A Turnpike-Proved tire. It costs no more than "bargain" tires.

3-T Nylon All-Weather $12.88
6.70 x 15 black tube-type, plus tax and any old tire off your car.
NO MONEY DOWN with your old tire. Pay as little as $1.25 a week.

Goodyear nation-wide guarantee

1. ROAD HAZARD GUARANTEE—All new Goodyear automobile tires are guaranteed by written certificate against normal Road Hazards—i.e. blowouts, fabric breaks, cuts—except repairable punctures. Guarantee limited to original owner for number of months specified.
2. LIFETIME GUARANTEE—All Goodyear tires are guaranteed against any defects in workmanship and material without limit as to time or mileage.

Remember, any Goodyear tire dealer (in all 50 states, there are over 60,000 of them) will repair your tire without charge, or make an allowance toward the purchase of a new tire, based on the original tread depth remaining and the current "Goodyear Price."

Do you know what those $10, $11, $12 nylon tires are really worth?

The best way for you to find out what a tire is really worth? Use it. But then it may be too late. How can you find out before you buy? The price tag won't tell you. There are so-called "bargain" tires, "cheapie" tires, "discount" tires and other tires you've never heard of. Most of them have one thing in common. They do a lot of shouting about price. But there's a big difference in what goes into them, as compared to a Goodyear tire. We took nine "bargain" nylon cord tires priced at $10, $11, $12 or more to the lab for analysis and matched them to our $12.88 3-T Nylon All-Weather.

What a difference! The Goodyear tire had a 23.2% stronger tire body than the average rating of the rest. And the tread strength rating of our 3-T Nylon All-Weather was also actually greater than the average of the others.

Price tags never tell the full story! Get a genuine Goodyear tire. A Turnpike-Proved tire. It costs no more than "bargain" tires.

3-T Nylon All-Weather $12.88
6.70 x 15 black tube-type, plus tax and any old tire off your car.
NO MONEY DOWN with your old tire. Pay as little as $1.25 a week.

Goodyear nation-wide guarantee

1. ROAD HAZARD GUARANTEE—All new Goodyear automobile tires are guaranteed by written certificate against normal Road Hazards—i.e. blowouts, fabric breaks, cuts—except repairable punctures. Guarantee limited to original owner for number of months specified.
2. LIFETIME GUARANTEE—All Goodyear tires are guaranteed against any defects in workmanship and material without limit as to time or mileage.

Remember, any Goodyear tire dealer (in all 50 states, there are over 60,000 of them) will repair your tire without charge, or make an allowance toward the purchase of a new tire, based on the original tread depth remaining and the current "Goodyear Price."

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Outside Interest May Inspire Child

When a child in the grades or high school fails or lags in his school work, the first thing his parents may think of is some home punishment. They suppose the easiest punishment to enforce is to take away some privileges such as Scouting, participating in outside play and activity, even leaving the house after school for a number of days. If he excels in some kind of game, that may be denied him. The parents' theory is that the severest punishment is denial of what he is most interested in and does best. Often the privilege to view favorite television programs is denied, if it can be enforced. In addition, this lagging child may be constantly shamed, nagged, charged with laziness, and told how he is disgracing his parents among their adult friends.

Dr. Garry Meyers

SUCH PROCEDURE rarely works. More often, it causes the child to lag more at school, to strive less there and to grow more antagonistic toward his parents.

Instead, the very thing outside of school he likes best may be the open sesame to his learning success, if wisely capitalized.

For example, the lagging boy in high school, reading everything he can find on space flight, could, with proper guidance and stimulation, become a good reader and feed the need to strive in mathematics and science.

I'm not averse to all punishments. Effective punishment may be desirable to require the child eight, 12 or 14 to be home nights before school and go at his homework at a regular time and place. If such punishment is effective, his grades at school may improve.

But when he's punished for the low grade at school, the punishment may not be directly connected, since his school lag may result from hundreds of specific situations.

BESIDES, HE may need far more help and guidance than to be required to be on hand regularly to do his lessons. He may need special help in learning one or all his school subjects. If his parents can't do this well, he may need help from a special tutor, expert or clinic.

It's the day-by-day application at his school work and his ways of doing it successfully that we parents need to be most concerned about.

My bulletins, "Helping Your Child Succeed at School" and "Home Helps in reading, spelling, arithmetic and handwriting", may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I make a good job of cleaning patent-leather shoes and other such articles?

A. Mix up a solution of two-thirds vinegar and one-third water. Apply this to the leather with a soft cloth, and polish with a dry cloth. Petroleum jelly, applied in the same way, will do the trick, too.

Q. I have trouble sometimes making decals stick to painted furniture. How can I remedy this?

A. By first going over the parts to which these transfers are to be applied with some white shellac, and allowing this to dry before applying the decals.

Q. I have some Venetian blinds that are a little too narrow for some of my windows. Is there any way I can still use these blinds?

A. Yes; you can try centering these blinds on the windows, and then covering the side gaps with draperies.

Ohio House Unit 'Ditches' Death Penalty Measure

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee Wednesday ditched an administration-backed bill to end capital punishment in Ohio. The vote was 14-5.

The action came on a motion to indefinitely postpone further consideration, tantamount to defeat of the proposal.

Four other measures to revise death penalty statutes were sent to a subcommittee by Chairman Edmund G. James, R-Noble. He asked for a report on them today.

Two of the proposals would repeal the governor's pardon clemency power and require the state Supreme Court to review all death penalty cases.

The others would change the manner of arriving at death verdicts. One would require a jury to recommend the death penalty in first-degree murder cases. The other proposes that after a jury convicts, a separate determination must be made to impose the death penalty.

Present law requires a death sentence for conviction of first-degree murder unless a jury recommends mercy.

Gary Stutler, Phillip Silliman and Jerry Zimmerman, members of the post, gave a first aid demonstration for members of Scout Troop 36, which was also meeting.

A committee was named to secure a booth at the carnival to be held by the Calcutta volunteer fire department in July.

3 Men Cited In Liquor Sale To City Girls

Three district men, cited in connection with the sale of intoxicants to two 17-year-old East Liverpool girls at a Y. & O. Rd. tavern Wednesday night, were due hearings in two courts today.

Robert Fraser, 32, of Wellsville R. D. 1, employe at the Bar-X Ranch, posted a $200 bond for a hearing before County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine for the sale of liquor to a minor.

Ralph Newtz, 32, of East Liverpool is in the County Jail awaiting a hearing before Judge Arfman on a charge of buying liquor for a minor.

The charges were filed by Joseph Major, an Ohio Liquor Control Board enforcement officer, who cited the pair last night at 9:40 at the bar about four miles northwest of here.

Homer Williams, 21, of Chester, along with Newtz, are due hearings today at Juvenile Court at Lisbon for contributing to the delinquency of the two girls who are being held for action by Juvenile Court authorities.

Court Dismisses Assault Charges Following Fracas

Acting on the recommendation of Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today dismissed charges of assault and battery against Robert Salsberry of W. 7th St. as an aftermath of a disturbance April 8 in the New York Restaurant.

The judge forfeited a $32.50 bond which had been posted by a second defendant in the case, Dan D. Chaffee, 25, of Anderson Blvd., charged with disturbing the peace by "riotous and disorderly conduct."

Chaffee failed to appear today as scheduled for sentencing. He had pleaded guilty April 10.

Salsberry also was scheduled for a hearing today, but the court was advised he is hospitalized at Pittsburgh, where his auto rammed into a utility pole Wednesday. The judge ordered Salsberry's $207.50 bond returned.

"I have been notified Mr. Salsberry was in an accident and is in the hospital at Pittsburgh, unable to appear," the assistant solicitor advised the court when Salsberry's case was called.

"I have done some investigation into this charge and so has the police department," Clark continued. "I have statements from four witnesses that the fracas was started by the other party. I move for dismissal for lack of evidence."

Clark also told the court Chaffee advised the police department he was in favor of dropping the charge. Police placed the charge against Chaffee. The Anderson Blvd. man later filed the assault charge against Salsberry.

Dr. George Naymick, Hancock County coroner, will speak at the meeting May 16 at Piatt's Tea Room in Wellsville. The dinner will begin at 6:30.

Latin Pupils Display Letters From President And Others

Letters from President Kennedy, Vice President Lyndon Johnson, former President Dwight Eisenhower, UN Ambassador Adlai Stevenson and other national, state and local figures on "The Value of Latin" are being displayed at East Junior High School in commemoration of Latin Week.

The 39 members of the Latin I Class taught by Miss Eleanor Jane Bennett wrote 37 letters asking the opinion of the prominent citizens on the value of Latin, and to date have received 24 replies.

Other replies were received from J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Sen. Frank Lausche, Sen. Stephen Young and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, Rep. Wayne L. Hays, State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel and local business and professional people.

A lengthy telegram also was received from Werner Von Braun, the nation's leading missile scientist.

In addition, the first-year students are displaying a mosaic, models of a Roman house, theater, bath, chariot, derivation chart, trees, doll attired in Roman dress, catapult and a bust of Mercury along with maps showing the extent of the Roman empire and the wanderings of Aeneas.

Friday is the legendary birthday of the founding of Rome in 753 B. C. and will be observed at an assembly in which the class members will present "A Trip though Roman History" and plays on "Twilight of the Gods" and "A Day Without Latin."

Class members also will sing songs in Latin. Randy Stover will preside.

Wellsville Boy Held In Burglary Of Store

An 18-year-old Wellsville boy was to be arraigned at 1:30 this afternoon before Judge James MacDonald in County Court at Lisbon on a charge of breaking and entering a Wellsville clothing store early Sunday morning.

John Wallace, 1924 Clark Ave., a Wellsville High School senior, is charged with burglarizing the Julius Goetz & Co. store at 460 Main St., just a few doors from the police station.

Police said Wallace broke a side window to gain entrance to the store. He stole a leather suitcase, four pairs of trousers, a jacket, five pair of socks and a pair of tennis shoes.

Police said this is the first time the youth ever has been in any kind of trouble. Scheduled to graduate in May, he has very high grades in school, police said.

3 Men Cited In Liquor Sale To City Girls

Three district men, cited in connection with the sale of intoxicants to two 17-year-old East Liverpool girls at a Y. & O. Rd. tavern Wednesday night, were due hearings in two courts today.

Robert Fraser, 32, of Wellsville R. D. 1, employe at the Bar-X Ranch, posted a $200 bond for a hearing before County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine for the sale of liquor to a minor.

Ralph Newtz, 32, of East Liverpool is in the County Jail awaiting a hearing before Judge Arfman on a charge of buying liquor for a minor.

The charges were filed by Joseph Major, an Ohio Liquor Control Board enforcement officer, who cited the pair last night at 9:40 at the bar about four miles northwest of here.

Homer Williams, 21, of Chester, along with Newtz, are due hearings today at Juvenile Court at Lisbon for contributing to the delinquency of the two girls who are being held for action by Juvenile Court authorities.

Court Dismisses Assault Charges Following Fracas

Acting on the recommendation of Asst. Solicitor Richard J. Clark, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today dismissed charges of assault and battery against Robert Salsberry of W. 7th St. as an aftermath of a disturbance April 8 in the New York Restaurant.

The judge forfeited a $32.50 bond which had been posted by a second defendant in the case, Dan D. Chaffee, 25, of Anderson Blvd., charged with disturbing the peace by "riotous and disorderly conduct."

Chaffee failed to appear today as scheduled for sentencing. He had pleaded guilty April 10.

Salsberry also was scheduled for a hearing today, but the court was advised he is hospitalized at Pittsburgh, where his auto rammed into a utility pole Wednesday. The judge ordered Salsberry's $207.50 bond returned.

"I have been notified Mr. Salsberry was in an accident and is in the hospital at Pittsburgh, unable to appear," the assistant solicitor advised the court when Salsberry's case was called.

"I have done some investigation into this charge and so has the police department," Clark continued. "I have statements from four witnesses that the fracas was started by the other party. I move for dismissal for lack of evidence."

Clark also told the court Chaffee advised the police department he was in favor of dropping the charge. Police placed the charge against Chaffee. The Anderson Blvd. man later filed the assault charge against Salsberry.

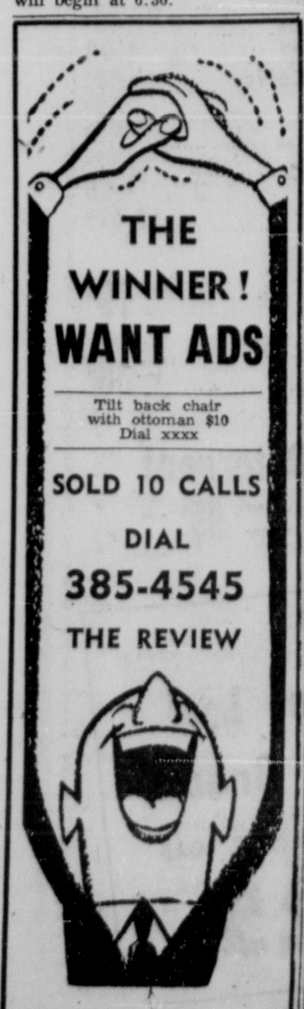
RH Factors In Blood Discussed For Nurses

A talk on the Rh factors in human blood highlighted the dinner meeting of the Tri-State Valley Industrial Nurses Association Tuesday night in New Philadelphia.

The speaker was Ted Robinson, chief laboratory technician at Union Hospital in Dover. Mrs. Wilma Minor presided.

Twenty members and 10 guests attended. Mrs. Lois Miller of Dover was hostess.

Dr. George Naymick, Hancock County coroner, will speak at the meeting May 16 at Piatt's Tea Room in Wellsville. The dinner will begin at 6:30.



Latin Pupils Display Letters From President And Others

Letters from President Kennedy, Vice President Lyndon Johnson, former President Dwight Eisenhower, UN Ambassador Adlai Stevenson and other national, state and local figures on "The Value of Latin" are being displayed at East Junior High School in commemoration of Latin Week.

The 39 members of the Latin I Class taught by Miss Eleanor Jane Bennett wrote 37 letters asking the opinion of the prominent citizens on the value of Latin, and to date have received 24 replies.

Other replies were received from J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; Sen. Frank Lausche, Sen. Stephen Young and Sen. Margaret Chase Smith, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, Rep. Wayne L. Hays, State Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel and local business and professional people.

A lengthy telegram also was received from Werner Von Braun, the nation's leading missile scientist.

The replies have been posted on a bulletin board in the school corridor for all students to read.

In addition, the first-year students are displaying a mosaic, models of a Roman house, theater, bath, chariot, derivation chart, trees, doll attired in Roman dress, catapult and a bust of Mercury along with maps showing the extent of the Roman empire and the wanderings of Aeneas.

Friday is the legendary birthday of the founding of Rome in 753 B. C. and will be observed at an assembly in which the class members will present "A Trip though Roman History" and plays on "Twilight of the Gods" and "A Day Without Latin."

Class members also will sing songs in Latin. Randy Stover will preside.

Wellsville Boy Held In Burglary Of Store

An 18-year-old Wellsville boy was to be arraigned at 1:30 this afternoon before Judge James MacDonald in County Court at Lisbon on a charge of breaking and entering a Wellsville clothing store early Sunday morning.

John Wallace, 1924 Clark Ave., a Wellsville High School senior, is charged with burglarizing the Julius Goetz & Co. store at 460 Main St., just a few doors from the police station.

Police said Wallace broke a side window to gain entrance to the store. He stole a leather suitcase, four pairs of trousers, a jacket, five pair of socks and a pair of tennis shoes.

Police said this is the first time the youth ever has been in any kind of trouble. Scheduled to graduate in May, he has very high grades in school, police said.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Our 16-year-old daughter is a nervous wreck. About 10 days ago someone started the rumor that she is pregnant. It is the talk of the school.

There is no truth whatever in the story but once a thing like this gets going how do you stop it? Our daughter has pleaded with us to let her change schools. She just can't bear to have the kids whispering about her behind her back.

My husband thinks we should ask the superintendent for permission to have her transferred. She would prefer leaving the city and finishing the school year in the small town where her married sister lives.

Please help us. We are too upset to think clearly.—MRS. C.

Dear Mrs. C.: Don't let her change schools or leave the city. A perfect attendance record is the only way to explode the lie.

Your daughter needs your support and guidance. Don't let her down by helping her to run from the situation.

Hearty Biennial

Dear Ann: Every two years my sister - in - law comes home from overseas. She brings four children and a dog.

A month before they arrive we get a cable asking us to rent a car, phone the family, stock up on baby food, dog food and buy steaks (which she misses over there), get a crib, playpen, high chair, etc., and meet the ship.

Our home is a free hotel for stopovers while they visit around. When they leave we must return all the paraphernalia and have a farewell party.

We wouldn't mind if they were appreciative but we have yet to hear one word of thanks. They just assume we are thrilled to do it. We are fed up and want your advice on how to get out of it gracefully.—L. K.

Dear L. K.: There's no way to get out of it "gracefully" but you CAN get out of it if you want to. This suggested cable will cool off the relationship but if it's what you want to accomplish then go ahead and send it:

"Sorry but we can do nothing for you this time as we are busy with conflicting plans. Better contact other members of the family this year.—L.K."

P.S.: This column appears in some foreign countries, so perhaps you'd better change the wording a little!

Disciplinarian

Dear Ann: Our children are from 3 years of age up to 15. My husband is a sweet man but he refuses to discipline them. Because of his chicken-heartedness, all the disciplining is left up to me. The children call me "The Warden" and "The Meanie." I think they are only half kidding.

Is it fair for me to be known as the tough one just because I want them to grow up with a sense of responsibility and personal integrity? Please reply in print.—WARDEN.

Dear Warden: Don't worry about what your children will think of you. They may gripe about your toughness but so long as you are fair, they will love you and not resent the discipline. In years to come they will think of you as the parent who had the courage and wisdom to make them toe the mark.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing stamped, self-addressed envelope.

'He' Turns Out To Be 'She' Prisoner, Authorities Learn

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio (AP)—Belmont County officials were trying to figure out today what to do with Gary Johnson, a most unusual prisoner.

Sheriff George Neff's problems started Wednesday when the prisoner was taken to Ohio Penitentiary to begin a 1-15 year sentence for burglary.

The prisoner was taken to the "shakedown room," where incoming prisoners are stripped, inspected and fingerprinted. But before Gary Johnson got to the real stripdown, Johnson said, timidly and with a giggle, "I'd better see the warden."

And then it was learned that "he" was a "she."

So the prisoner, who says her middle name is Louise, was returned to the Belmont County jail.

Neff said he wanted the county health doctor to examiner her, and when it is determined for certain she is a woman, she will probably have to be resentenced and taken to Marysville Reformatory for Women.

Until the shakedown at Ohio Penitentiary, no one apparently was aware Gary Johnson was a woman—neither the sheriff, the three prisoners who shared a Belmont County jail cell with her for 22 days, authorities in Louisiana and California where she served time in prisons nor the FBI.

After the woman was returned to Belmont County, Sheriff Neff questioned her.

He quoted her as saying she has been masquerading as a man since she was 14. She is 37 now. Her records list her as being from Choctaw, Okla.

Each past president received a corsage.

Mrs. Brucker, president, presented Mrs. Charles Newcomb with a life membership pin and Mrs. Newcomb signed the life membership scroll. Mrs. Brucker received a life membership pin at the spring conference of United Lutheran Church Women held in Rochester April 12. Mrs. Paul also attended.

Miss Doris Taylor, attired in a "Gay 90's" costume, sang several songs from that period. Mrs. Charles Jones was accompanist.

C. Lloyd Defenbaugh led group singing and joined Mrs. Robert Cowan in a duet. Mrs. Defenbaugh was accompanist.

The auxiliary of the Lutheran Service Society and pastors will be entertained by the Ohio View group June 26 at 8 p. m. in the Ohio View church. The chairman will be announced at the thank-offering meeting May 16 at a meeting place to be named later. Mrs. Ed Kramer is thank-offering chairman, Mrs. Laco Shreve is program chairman and Mrs. Homer Gifford will lead devotions.

Mrs. Brucker presented a welcoming address and made brief announcements following the dinner and program. Mrs. Cowan gave the invocation.

Mrs. Steven Hazy will serve as altar care committee chairman for May, assisted by Mrs. Theodore Steiner, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. William Keagy and Miss Lynn M. Hazy.

Mrs. John Madish was dinner chairman.

Bouquets of pink snapdragons and orchid iris and blue tapers in milkglass centered the past presidents' table.

Convicted Murderer Back In Ohio Prison

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Convicted murder Thomas Viola is back in Ohio Penitentiary after seven months of freedom in which he became one of the FBI's "ten most wanted men." Ohio Penitentiary's Warden Beryle C. Sacks and three prison officials brought Viola back from Detroit Wednesday after extradition proceedings were completed.

The convicted slayer of two Warren men walked away from an Ohio Penitentiary honor camp last Sept. 22. He was captured in a Detroit apartment by FBI agents March 27. Viola, 48, is serving a life term.

Ex-War Writer Dies

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — Harry T. Brundidge, 64, former war correspondent and editor for Cosmopolitan magazine, died Wednesday after a long illness. Brundidge, who started his newspaper career with the St. Louis Star-Times, also worked for the Nashville Tennessean, the old International News Service and Mercury magazine before he retired in 1955.

Studies TV Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Communications Commission says it will consider a proposal to assign television channel 20 to Athens, Ohio, for educational use. Channel 62 now is available in Athens, but Ohio University, which plans to apply for an educational station there, would prefer to operate a station on a lower numbered channel to provide wider coverage.

American Flag Kits Mailed To Principals

CHARLESTON (AP) — The American Legion is mailing out this week 2,700 American Flag kits to West Virginia elementary school principals, State Commander Robert E. Lester said Wednesday.

Lester said the kits are provided without cost by the Legion, and that several principals have ordered additional supplies.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Weight Training Plan Builds Curves

At this season of the year, you thin girls are most eager to swing into action. You write that it's no fun to be thin in summer, and that you feel apologetic about your scarcity of curves. Working with weights can strengthen the powerful pectoral muscles that support the bust and thus improve the bustline. The system guarantees curves.

Ida Jean Kain

Exercising with weights is not to be confused with weight lifting. In weight - training you exercise according to your own strength. If your energy is below par, have a check-up. It is always wise to make sure you are in condition to exercise.

The equipment needed is iron dumbbells of two and three-pound weights.

LATER YOU can use dumbbells weighing five to eight pounds. The iron dumbbells can be purchased at stores which specialize in sports equipment. The cost is little and the progress is measurably rewarding.

There are definite exercise rules. In working with weights you exercise every other day. Have a day of rest in between. Important: Breathe normally throughout each exercise...breathe in during the exertion part of the exercise, and breathe out on the release phase of the movement.

Progression: Each week the number of times the exercise is performed is increased by one or two counts. Each exercise scheduled for five repetitions is increased to six or seven at the start of the second week...seven to eight times at the beginning of the third week and so on up to ten repetitions.

At that point, the weight of the dumbbells may be increased by one or two pounds. When the weight is increased, the exercise is repeated five times only and the rate of repetition - increase is commenced all over again.

Weight training for girls is spreading with the momentum of a new hope. Courses are now being offered as a part of the physical education plan in some colleges as well as in health clubs.

To help you start, there is a new leaflet called "Weight Training For Curve Building." Here are two of the exercises included in the leaflet.

Position: Stand with feet a comfortable distance apart. Hold dumbbells at shoulders. Action: Slowly raise dumbbells to arms' length above head and slowly return to shoulders. Work slowly.

Inhale as arms are raised, exhale as arms are lowered to shoulders. Keep eyes straight ahead, do not look up. Do not allow back to bend. Repeat exercise five times. Rest for two minutes before continuing to next exercise.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Weight Training Plan Builds Curves

At this season of the year, you thin girls are most eager to swing into action. You write that it's no fun to be thin in summer, and that you feel apologetic about your scarcity of curves. Working with weights can strengthen the powerful pectoral muscles that support the bust and thus improve the bustline. The system guarantees curves.

Ida Jean Kain

Exercising with weights is not to be confused with weight lifting. In weight - training you exercise according to your own strength. If your energy is below par, have a check-up. It is always wise to make sure you are in condition to exercise.

The equipment needed is iron dumbbells of two and three-pound weights.

LATER YOU can use dumbbells weighing five to eight pounds. The iron dumbbells can be purchased at stores which specialize in sports equipment. The cost is little and the progress is measurably rewarding.

There are definite exercise rules. In working with weights you exercise every other day. Have a day of rest in between. Important: Breathe normally throughout each exercise...breathe in during the exertion part of the exercise, and breathe out on the release phase of the movement.

Progression: Each week the number of times the exercise is performed is increased by one or two counts. Each exercise scheduled for five repetitions is increased to six or seven at the start of the second week...seven to eight times at the beginning of the third week and so on up to ten repetitions.

At that point, the weight of the dumbbells may be increased by one or two pounds. When the weight is increased, the exercise is repeated five times only and the rate of repetition - increase is commenced all over again.
